Dear Alanna:

Thank you very much for expressing interest in our participation in the upcoming exhibition "Greater New York". Few days ago, we got together and discussed various possibilities for a project. Considering constraints of both time and money, it was our consensus that a serious and meaningful contribution was not feasible for the show in February.

However, we would all like to confirm our desire in continuing our conversation. There is a strong and growing public interest in design and in designers' work. Your own excitement in visiting our studious and seeing our work should be shared with a larger audience. Let us hope we can come up with a suitable format for such public presentation.

- 3 curators from each institution as list of artists gets smaller – sit in on marathon slide viewing session

Need scouts to obtain 'hit list' from. Scouts include:

All in attendance will divide list and personally contact each scout to obtain their recommendations.

Must define 'emerging artist' – can famous artists fall into this category (e.g. Sarah Sze, Anna Gaskell) – should not have been a significant player at MoMA or PS1.
No age limit.

The Special Projects located on 2nd floor should be by NY artists during the Greater New York show.

Dear Laura,

Hi—thanks for your call this morning. Here's what follows:

- An all-curator letter with logistical guidelines
- Studio visit assignments for the submissions to MoMA. There were a few that Carolyn had already made appointments with for other purposes, which is why it's not strictly random.
- Studio visit assignments for the submissions made to P.S.1
- a studio visit form (I'll email this to you as soon as I can so you can print it out yourself)
- CCB's passionate plea list as of last week (this will be updated soon)—she invites all who want to come to do so.

If you have any questions please call me!

Yours,

Larissa

P.S.: Claudia + CCB are visiting Francis Cape together tomorrow, (as noted on last page of fax).
