restrictions. Contributed collection items are not reflected in the consolidated financial statements. Proceeds from sale of works of art, which are reflected as increases in net assets with donor restrictions, are used primarily to acquire other items for the collection.

Devoting Museum resources to the direct care of the works in the and extend their lifespan. Direct care of the collection may include, but is not limited to, providing specialized safe, secure and climate controlled storage and galleries spaces, protecting the works which require it from heat, humidity, theft, visitor handling, fire, dust, excessive lighting, water, pests, physical forces and other elements, as well as providing expert conservation, registration, cataloguing, audio visual, imaging, framing and documentation services.

Part III, line 4:

The Museum is chartered as an educational institution whose collection of modern and contemporary art is made available to the public to encourage an ever-deeper understanding and enjoyment of such art by the diverse local, national, and international audiences that it serves. In pursuit of this goal, the Museum has collected over 200,000 works of painting, sculpture, drawing, printmaking, photography, film, performance, media, architecture, and industrial and graphic design. Through the leadership of its Board of Trustees and staff, the Museum strives to establish, preserve, and document a collection of the highest order that reflects the vitality, complexity and unfolding patterns of modern and contemporary art; present exhibitions and educational programs of unparalleled significance; sustain a library, archives and conservation laboratory that are recognized as international centers of research; and support scholarship and publications of preeminent intellectual merit.

Part V, line 4:

The Museum's endowment funds consist of approximately 157 individual funds established for a variety of purposes, including art acquisitions, exhibitions, publications, educational and operating support. Its endowment includes both donor restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the Board to function as endowments. As required by Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, net assets associated with endowments funds, including funds designated by the Board to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. The long term focus of the Museum's investment portfolio is to support the Museum's mission by providing a reliable source of funds for current and future use. The value of the Museum's investments have and will fluctuate in response to changing market conditions.

to the art of our time. The Museum aspires to be a catalyst for experimentation, learning, and creativity, a gathering place for all, and a home for artists and their ideas. As part of this mission, the Museum of Modern Art establishes, preserves, and documents a permanent collection of modern and contemporary art, presents exhibitions and educational programs, sustains a library, archives, and conservation laboratory and supports scholarship and publications. The Form 990 is one of several reports the Museum makes available each year. The Museum encourages it to be read with the audited financial statements, which provide additional financial context. These documents as well as previous years reports can be found on moma.org.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1:

The Museum's mission is to connect people from around the world to the art of our time. The Museum aspires to be a catalyst for experimentation, learning, and creativity, a gathering place for all, and a home for artists and their ideas. In pursuit of this goal, the Museum has collected approximately 200,000 works of art, including works of painting, sculpture, drawing, prints, illustrated books, internationally.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

After over three years of construction, including a planned four-month temporary closure of the Museum to the public in order to complete construction and art re-installation, an expanded new MoMA opened on October 21, 2019, with a reimagined presentation of modern and contemporary art, catalyzed by a 30% increase in overall gallery space and an improved quality of visitor experience through reconceived entrances, circulation, and amenities, concurrent with an increase in public space, including an expanded below-grade store and a new restaurant with terrace on the sixth floor. The expansion, developed by MoMA with architects Diller Scofidio + Renfro, in collaboration with Gensler, added more than 40,000 square feet of gallery spaces and enables the Museum to exhibit significantly more art in new and interdisciplinary ways.

In FY 2023, visitors to MoMA had access to or engaged with interpretative offerings including labels, audio content (offered in nine languages), activity packets, and self-guided tour materials.

During FY 2022 and FY 2023, the Museum brought back various onsite programs, including gallery tours, interactive spaces, workshops, visual description tours for the blind and partially sighted, and resources for other individuals with special needs, that had been successfully pivoted to virtual offerings during part of the pandemic.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

The Museum's Form 990 is prepared by Grant Thornton LLP in coordination with the Museum's controller's office with input from many museum departments. It is then reviewed by Museum senior staff including the Director, the Chief Operating Officer, the Chief Financial Officer, and the General Counsel. The 990 is then presented to the Museum's Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees for review and approval. A copy of the 990 is provided to each member for the Board of Trustees electronically or in printed copy prior to filing the return. The 990 is available to the public through the Museum's website www.moma.org.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

On an annual basis, the Museum distributes its code of conduct to all trustees and designated employees and requires that conflict of interest questionnaires be completed and returned for initial review by the office of the General Counsel and the Director of Human Resources respectively. Amongst other things, the conflict of interest questionnaire requires the responder: confirm that he or she has read and understands the code of conduct, agree to abide by it, identify whether he or she or a family member has any relationship with the Museum that may represent a conflict of interest as defined by the code and report any knowledge of a transaction which should be reported under the code, etc. When potential employee conflicts of interest are reported or identified, when necessary, an investigation is conducted to determine the facts and circumstances and recommendation of action, if warranted. Such action may include, but is not limited to, prohibiting the individual from participating in deliberations and decisions regarding the transaction in question, or taking disciplinary action, which in appropriate circumstances may include suspension or termination. The employee's supervisor is notified of an employee with identified conflicts and the action to be taken, if any. When potential trustee conflicts of interest are reported or identified, the general counsel's office makes a report to a committee of the Board of Trustees with a recommendation for action, if warranted, including but not limited to disclose to the board of trustees, prohibiting the trustee from participating in and/or voting on the transaction in question, resignation from the Board of Trustees, etc. The code of conduct further provides that the committee make a recommendation to the Chairman of the Board for decision by the board.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

The process for determining the compensation for the museum director and certain key employees includes reviews and approval by the Board of Trustees' compensation subcommittee of the executive committee (the "committee") of the governing body, consisting of independent trustees, and not including the director or other staff members. In making its determination, the committee obtains and reviews comparability data with respect to compensation levels paid for comparable job positions obtained through the assistance of an expert compensation consultant which, in appropriate instances, includes survey data regarding compensation levels paid by similarly situated organizations for comparable employment positions, form 990 data from other leading Museums and cultural and education institutions, as well as for profit institutions which may be interested in recruiting the Museum staff. The determination, deliberation and decisions made by the committee are contemporaneously substantiated and documented in minutes of the meeting which include the committee members
