MUSEUM OF MODERN ART ANNOUNCES FORTHCOMING EXHIBITIONS

The Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, will hold the following exhibitions during the late Spring, and Summer season. The schedule includes the large retrospective exhibition, already announced, of the work of Georgia O'Keeffe opening May 15. The exhibitions are as follows:

- May 15 - August 25      GEORGIA O'KEEFFE. A retrospective exhibition of the work of one of America's leading painters, this will include paintings produced as early as 1915 and as late as 1945. Approximately 55 paintings and a number of watercolors and drawings compose the exhibition, which is directed by James Johnson Sweeney, Director of the Department of Painting and Sculpture.
- June 12 - Sept. 8      A NEW COUNTRY HOUSE BY FRANK LLOYD WRIGHT: A Scale Model. A large and romantic house, as yet unbuilt, which Mr. Wright has designed for G. M. Loeb at Redding, Connecticut, will be exhibited in the form of a complete and accurate scale model. The model, made by the architect himself, measures about six by thirteen feet, and its roofs are removable for inspection of furnished interiors. The projected house includes guest quarters and caretakers cottage as well as the main residence.
- June 12 - Oct. 6      DESIGNED FOR CHILDREN, to be shown in the Young People's Gallery, has been created in response to requests from parents and teachers for pictures, toys, games and art equipment for children of all ages. It will present suitable color prints, jig-saw puzzles made from modern paintings, toys, art equipment such as art sets for home and outdoors, easel tables, unit furniture and even a scale model of a practical art room for schools. All the material has been developed and tested by the Educational Program.
- June 19 - Sept. 15      NEW PHOTOGRAPHERS. This exhibition has been prepared by the Museum's Photography Department for the Circulating Exhibitions Department which will send it on tour after its initial showing here. The exhibition will be a cross section of present trends in photography. Most of the 17 photographers whose works are included have not previously exhibited at the Museum. A variety of approaches to the medium will be shown and a feature will be the inclusion of kodachrome slides which will be projected during the exhibition.
- June 19 - August 25      BALLET DRAWINGS BY FRANKLIN C. WATKINS. This exhibition, to be shown in the permanent gallery assigned to the Department of Dance and Theatre Design, will consist of drawings by the artist for the ballet "Transcendence," performed by The American Ballet in 1934. The complete set of thirteen drawings in twelve frames, all of which belong to the Museum Collection, will be shown.
- July 3 - Sept. 22      NEW YORK PRIVATE COLLECTIONS. This will be the first of a series of Summer exhibitions of works of modern art from New York private collections to be shown by the Museum. The exhibition will be arranged by Monroe Wheeler, Director of Exhibitions.
