11 WEST 53RD STREET, NEW YORK

TELEPHONE: CIRCLE 7-7470

FOR RELEASE Saturday afternoon or
Sunday morning, October 24 or 25, 1936

John E. Abbott, Director of the Museum of Modern Art Film Library, announces Film Series III, a new series of programs which will be released by the Film Library beginning January 1, 1937, for circulation to museums, colleges and film study groups throughout the country. Film Series III considers the development of the motion picture in Germany and in France and is composed of films obtained by Mr. Abbott and Miss Barry, Curator of the Film Library, on their recent trip to Europe. As each program is released it will be shown first by the Museum of Modern Art, in New York, to its members.

The programs comprising Film Series III are as follows:

In its first season (1935-1936), the Film Library issued two series of five programs each, which have been shown by sixty-one institutions in twenty-two states and have been seen by approximately 100,000 persons. The first two series were of American films. Series III, to be released January 1, 1937, will be the first programs of foreign films to be issued. The Museum of Modern Art Film Library was established in May 1935, by a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation to assemble, catalog and preserve as complete a record as possible in the actual films themselves of all types of noteworthy motion pictures made in this country or abroad from 1894 to the present day, and to circulate these films non-commercially to museums, colleges and study groups throughout the country.
