SUMMERGARDEN May 14 through October 10

A grant from Mobil Foundation has made it possible for the Museum to open its Garden free Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings from 6 pm until 11 pm. "Summergarden" will offer occasional music on some evenings. Light refreshments will be available. Entrance to "Summergarden" will be through the gates in the Garden wall on West 54 Street, between Fifth Avenue and the Avenue of the Americas. Named in honor of one of the Museum's founders, Abby Aldrich Rockefeller, the Garden is famous throughout the world for its design and for its exhibition of outdoor sculpture.

JAZZ IN THE GARDEN

A series of ten Thursday evening concerts in the Museum Sculpture Garden starting June 17. 7:30 - 9:30 pm. Admission to the concert is $1.00, plus regular Museum admission. Tickets go on sale the Saturday before each concert. No reserved seats. Garden Restaurant open for refreshments. Program will be announced in June.

EXHIBITIONS

THE MUSEUM COLLECTION

The 2nd and 3rd floor galleries in which a selection from the Museum's collection of painting and sculpture is always on view are planned to give an overall view of significant artistic directions from the 1880's through the present, as well as to allow the exhibition of newly acquired works in the context of the collection.

Younger Abstract Expressionists of the Fifties. A selection of paintings and sculpture from the Museum collection by artists who matured during the later phases of Abstract Expressionism. Included are paintings by Helen Frankenthaler, Grace Hartigan, Alfred Leslie,

Joan Mitchell, Jan Müller and Larry Rivers, and sculpture and constructions by John Chamberlain, Robert Mallary and Richard Stankiewicz. Selected by Alicia Legg, Associate Curator, Painting and Sculpture. 3rd floor. (April 26 - July 26)

Selections from the Architecture and Design Collection, including newly acquired objects. Selected by Arthur Drexler, Director, Department of Architecture and Design. The Philip L. Goodwin Galleries for Architecture and Design, 2nd floor.

Selections from the Photography Collection, including a new installation of recent work. Selected by John Szarkowski, Director, Department of Photography. The Edward Steichen Photography Galleries, 3rd floor.

A Selection of Drawings and Watercolors from the Museum Collection. Recently acquired contemporary works by artists from the U.S., Europe, Asia and Latin America shown in the context of earlier works representative of the principal artists and styles of the 20th century. Includes recent drawings for projects by Sol LeWitt and Barry Le Va, as well as satirical works by Lucas Samaras, Francisco Toledo, Vassily Yakovlovich Sitnikov and Malcolm Bailey. Also featured are selections from artists' travel sketchbooks -- Jules Pascin in Cuba and Jean Dubuffet in Algeria. Directed by Elaine L. Johnson, Associate Curator, Department of Painting and Sculpture. The Paul J. Sachs Galleries, 3rd floor.

MAY AND JUNE OPENINGS

May 5 - TECHNICS AND CREATIVITY: SELECTIONS FROM GEMINI G.E.L. Multiple art July 6 works from Gemini G.E.L. of Los Angeles. Working with some of America's major artists, the printers and craftsmen of Gemini have produced the largest lithographs (Rauschenberg), the largest multiple (Oldenburg), new uses for computers (Albers), special printing and molding devices (Johns) and, in general, have used the industry's resources to meet the creative demands of the artists. Directed by Riva Castleman, Associate Curator for Prints and Illustrated Books. 1st floor.

May 13 - ARCHITECTURE FOR THE ARTS: THE STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK COLLEGE AT June 22 PURCHASE. The new campus of the State University of New York at Purchase will open this year and by 1980 will have a peak enrollment of 6,000 students. In addition to a College of Letters and Science the campus includes a professional School of the Arts which will offer training in dance, film, music, theater, television and the visual arts. Edward Barnes has provided a master plan remarkable for the architectural variety it encourages. He and seven other architects have designed the 14 buildings that will make up the campus, all shown in models and drawings. Directed by Arthur Drexler, Director, Department of Architecture and Design. Goodwin Galleries, 2nd floor.

June - THE WORK OF FREI OTTO. A full-scale tent, constructed in the Museum Gar-Sept. 30 den, will house a survey of the work of one of Germany's most imaginative architects. The exhibition, consisting of major theoretical studies and executed projects shown in enlarged photographs and drawings with accompanying texts, will be installed on the upper terrace of the Museum's Garden. A structure made of a translucent membrane suspended from masts and anchored by steel cables, the tent was specially developed for the exhibition in consultation with the architect by one of his former associates, Professor Larry Medlin, Director of the Lightweight Construction Center, Washington University in St. Louis. It was produced in Germany with funds donated by the Farberke Hoechst. The Foreign Ministry of the Federal Republic of Germany provided an additional grant for the development expenses and the production of a catalogue. Directed by Ludwig Glaeser, Curator, Department of Architecture and Design. Upper Terrace, Sculpture Garden.

FUTURE OPENINGS (Incomplete Listing)

July 1 -
Sept. 27 THE ARTIST AS ADVERSARY. Approximately 250 works in all media drawn from the Museum collections illustrating some of the ways modern artists have addressed themselves to the larger public issues and events of our time: war and revolution, problems of social reform and political questions. Included will be photographs by Jacob Riis and Lewis Hine of urban poverty at the turn of the century; paintings, drawings, posters and prints by Rouault, Dix, Grosz, Kokoschka and Beckmann inspired by World War I and its disastrous aftermath in Germany; Orozco's Dive Bomber and Tank; Picasso's Guernica studies; Jacob Lawrence's Migration of the Negro series; and more recent work by artists such as Benny Andrews, Malcolm Bailey and Robert Indiana. A concurrent film program will include films by Henri Cartier-Bresson, Joris Ivens, Emile de Antonio and Pare Lorentz, among others. Directed by Betsy Jones, Associate Curator, Department of Painting and Sculpture. 1st floor.

July 7 -
Aug. 25 MANUEL ALVAREZ-BRAVO: PHOTOGRAPHS. An exhibition of approximately 60 photographs taken over the past 40 years by the Mexican photographer, organized by the Pasadena Art Museum. Installed by John Szarkowski, Director, Photography Department. Steichen Galleries, 3rd floor.

July 21 -
Sept. 27 CLARENCE H. WHITE: PHOTOGRAPHS. Clarence White, born in Ohio in 1871, made his first photographs about 1894 and by the turn of the century had gained an international reputation with his intimate and lyric genre studies. A founding member of the Photo-Secession, he was -- with Stieglitz, Steichen and Coburn -- one of the most important and innovative photographers of the pictorial photographic movement. The last significant showing of White's work was in 1926. The Museum's exhibition of more than 60 photographs, will attempt to affirm White's position in the history of photography and to provide an historical comparison to much contemporary work being done from similar motivation. Directed by Peter Bunnell, Curator, Photography Department. 1st floor.

Sept. -
Oct. VISIONS OF HARLEM. The Harlem area contains many buildings of significant architectural quality. This exhibition will review the historical development of the area, highlight planning and development trends, as well as individual buildings of architectural interest, and review recent development plans for renewal. The exhibition will be shown in Harlem and in The Museum of Modern Art. Joseph Black, Guest Director. Goodwin Galleries, 2nd floor.

BARNETT NEWMAN. In the planning stage for several years, the Newman retrospective was finally approved about a year before the artist's death. As conceived by Thomas B. Hess, Guest Director, the exhibition will be a drama of contrast between the large works, such as Vir Herocus Sublimus and Cathedra, which will be installed more or less chronologically, and the small paintings of the late 40's and 50's, small drawings and narrow, tall paintings. Also included will be Newman's six sculptures, which will be installed in the Garden, and his series of paintings, 14 Stations of the Cross. More than 60 works are being loaned by Mrs. Newman and the Estate. The Museum will publish an illustrated book in conjunction with the exhibition which will include an essay by Mr. Hess. 1st floor.

ROMARE BEARDEN: THE PREVALENCE OF RITUAL. The exhibition includes works from the past 30 years of the artist's career with emphasis on the collages and photomontages of the last 10 years. It concentrates on those works which best illustrate his extraordinary ability to express black consciousness aesthetically. Photo enlargements of the pivotal collages of 1964, the Projections, are included. Also of special interest is the 18-foot relief mural of a block in Harlem with a taped collage of street sounds, which the artist has constructed for the exhibition. There is an accompanying publication. The exhibition will tour in the U.S. Carroll Greene, Guest Director. 1st floor. (opened March 25)

THE SCULPTURE OF RICHARD HUNT. An exhibition surveying the work of the Chicago-based sculptor. Hunt is recognized as one of the foremost practitioners of direct-metal sculpture in America, and although his work has been widely exhibited, this is his first major museum retrospective. It covers the full range of his work from the found-object sculptures through the linear "drawings-in-space" to the more volumetric pieces of the last few years. The exhibition is accompanied by a publication. Directed by William S. Lieberman, Director, Department of Painting and Sculpture. 1st floor. (opened March 25)
