PENNEBAKER/GODARD FILM EVENT PREMIERES AT THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

On Tuesday, June 8, at 5:30 pm, The Museum of Modern Art will present D. A. Pennebaker's "One P.M." (One Parallel Movie) which is described as an "event consisting of Jean-Luc Godard's never completed 'One A.M.' (One American Movie), with additional film notes by D. A. Pennebaker." This presentation will constitute the New York premiere of these "notes toward a movie." Appearing in this film are Eldridge Cleaver, playwright and poet Le Roi Jones, actor Rip Torn, the popular music group Jefferson Airplane and student leader Tom Hayden.

D. A. Pennebaker will be present at the showing which is part of the Cineprobe Series, a program devoted to independent filmmakers. Pennebaker, a collaborator of Richard Leacock, is also celebrated for his work on the now classic documentary "Primary" and for his portrait of Bob Dylan in "Don't Look Back" and "Monterey Pop."
