THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

11 WEST 53RD STREET, NEW YORK

TELEPHONE: CIRCLE 7-7470

FOR RELEASE

One of the largest and most brilliant dinner parties to be held before the private opening of the new Museum of Modern Art on the evening of May 10 will be that given by the Honorable and Mrs. Robert Woods Bliss of Washington, D.C.

Mrs. Bliss, a Trustee of the Museum, maintains a home in New York but it is not quite large enough for so elaborate a party. In order to provide a more commodious setting for her many guests, she has borrowed for that evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. M. Barlow in Gramercy Park.

Among her dinner guests will be: Their Excellencies the Swedish Minister and Madame Bostrom, Washington, D. C.; Their Excellencies the Danish Minister and Madame Wadsted, Washington, D. C.; Count and Countess Folke Bernadotte of Wisborg; Sir Kenneth and Lady Clark, of London; His Excellency the Minister of Finland; Her Excellency Madame Munthe de Morgenstierne; Mrs. Vincent Astor; Colonel and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt; Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt; The Hon. and Mrs. John Work Garrett; President and Mrs. Harold Willis Dodds of Princeton; Mr. and Mrs. F. Trubee Davison; Mrs. Meredith Hare; Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Pell; Mr. and Mrs. David Edward Finley; Professor and Mrs. Edward W. Forbes; Mr. and Mrs. Fiske Kimball; William Milliken of Cleveland; James Speyer; the Hon. John Stewart Bryan of Williamsburg, Virginia; Mrs. Truxtun Beale; Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. du Pont; and The Hon. Frederic C. Walcott.
