HELLMAN'S ANGELS, JAZZ AND BAROQUE TRIO, PERFORM FOR SUMMERGARDEN FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, JULY 20 AND 21

Hellman's Angels, this week's Summergarten performers, have distinguished themselves in this country and abroad with programs drawn from compatible baroque and jazz. These are woven into intriguing arrangements for harp, bass, and guitar and will be heard starting at 8 pm on Friday, July 20 and Saturday, July 21 in the Garden of The Museum of Modern Art. Each member of the trio is a virtuoso with a classical musical background, and the combination of their talents can create extraordinary musical excitement.

Daphne Hellman, harpist, studied in Paris with Henriette Renie and in America with Salzedo and Marcel Grandjany. She has appeared in nightclubs in the United States and Europe, and has given concerts in America, Canada, Europe, Australia, Africa, India, and the Orient. Her most recent tour included Vietnam and Cambodia.

Dr. Lyndon Christy, bassist, emigrated from Australia five years ago and worked as Resident M. D. at Yonkers Hospital. He now plays with Lee Konitz and Al Kohn, has a grant with the Westchester Symphony, and appears with Hellman's Angels.

Mike Gari, guitarist, was born in New York and studied at Antioch College. He has toured with Les Elgart and is considered a well-known young musician.

Hellman's Angels is presently performing Wednesday evenings at the Village Gate.

Summergarten is Mobil Foundation's gift to New York. It enables The Museum of Modern Art to open its Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Sculpture Garden without charge on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday evenings from 6 to 11 pm, from June 1 through September 30. Entertainment scheduled for Friday and Saturday nights begins at 8 pm. Access to the Garden is through the gates at 8 W. 54 Street. Light refreshments are usually available.

Next week's performers are Ralf Beschnidt and Arthur Krimss, who play renaissance and modern compositions for classical guitar and recorder.
