FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEW YORK ART CRITIC DONOR TO MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

Miss Emily Genauer, art critic of the New York World Telegram, has given the Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, four arborvitae trees. These trees, ranging in height from six to eight feet, will be installed in the Museum's sculpture garden.

LUNCHEON SERVICE TO BE DISCONTINUED UNTIL NEXT SUMMER

The luncheon service in the Museum's garden will be continued through Saturday, October 3, and tea service through Sunday, October 4, when they will be discontinued until early next summer.

As has been the custom since the Museum moved into its home at 11 West 53 Street in May 1939, tea will be served to members in the Museum penthouse from 4 to 6:15 P.M. daily including Sundays.
