

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MRS. JOHN HAY WHITNEY AND MRS. CHARLES S. PAYSON GIVE SUPPER AFTER PRIVATE OPENING OF EXHIBITION OF LATIN AMERICAN ART AT MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

A supper was given in the penthouse of the Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, Tuesday evening, March 30, by Mrs. John Hay Whitney and Mrs. Charles Shipman Payson on the occasion of the private preview of the Exhibition of Latin American Art in the Museum's Collection which opens to the public Wednesday. Mrs. Whitney is the wife of Lieutenant Colonel John Hay Whitney, president of the Museum, who is in active service.

Guests at the supper included Private Lincoln Kirstein, who directed the exhibition, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Abbott, Sr. René Armengual, Sr. Hugo Fernandez Artucio, Sr. Luis Cardoza y Aragon, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Barr, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George Biddle, Mr. and Mrs. Mariano Brull, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen C. Clark, Sr. Victor de Carvalho, Mrs. W. Murray Crane, Sr. Eduardo de Valenzuela, Sr. Francisco Pardo de Zela, Mr. and Mrs. Fernando de los Rios, Sr. Roberto Matta Echaurren, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Findlay, Mr. Philip L. Goodwin, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Harrison, Mrs. Lincoln Kirstein and Dr. and Mrs. David Levy.

Also Mr. Henry R. Luce, Miss Beatriz Osorio, Mr. and Mrs. Gustavo Pittaluga, Mrs. Fairfax Potter, Mrs. Beardsley Ruml, Mr. and Mrs. Eduardo Santos, Mr. and Mrs. James Thrall Soby, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Watson, Mr. Monroe Wheeler, Lieutenant and Mrs. Edward M. M. Warburg, and Miss Maria Yáñez.