Dressing Up for Civil Rights

Performer bios

anthamatten-dominguez is a professor of philosophy as well as a poet, performance artist, and musician. In the spirit of William Pope.L, his performances have included endurance crawls in a diaper in New York City and Washington, DC, and high-heel boxing matches against inflatable clowns.

Kym Bernazky is a theater and performance artist. She has been producing work in New York City since 1998. She earned her BFA in acting at New York University and has trained extensively with SITI Company. She also read to pigeons at Ann Hamilton's the event of a thread at the Armory.

Orlando Cordova is an American-born painter, actor, filmmaker, and photographer based out of New York City. Whether working in paint or film, his compositions are based on emotional and poetic relationships, rather than rules of visual logic.

Miguel Angel Guzmán is a dancer and actor based in New York. He has performed locally as well as internationally throughout Mexico, Canada, Europe, and the Middle East. Guzmán has had the pleasure of working with artists such as Deborah Hay, Simone Forti, Coco Karol, Sxip Shirey, Ligia Lewis, Amanda Palmer, and Alexandra Pirici.

Larissa Marten is a German actor and writer based in New York. Her television credits include Instinct and On the Line, and her theater credits include Kill Hamlet at Signature Theatre, Boeing-Boeing at Majestic Theater, and As You Like It and Richard II with Michigan Shakespeare Festival. Marten is the codirector of the theater collective Herd, for which she currently tours nationally with I Killed the Cow, a one-woman show using humor to discuss sexual assault. She received her BFA in acting from the University of Michigan.

Christopher “Unpezverde” Núñez is a Costa Rican choreographer based in New York City. His performances have been featured in the New York Times and Dance Enthusiast. Núñez is a 2019 Leslie Lohman Museum Fellow. His work has been presented at the Kitchen, Movement Research at the Judson Church, and Danspace Project, among others.
