intellectual merit.	·
Central to The Museum of Modern Art's mission is the encouragement of an ever-deeper understanding and enjoyment of modern and contemporary art by the diverse local, national, and international audiences that it serves. To achieve its goals The Museum of Modern Art recognizes:
- That modern and contemporary art originated in the exploration of the ideals and interests generated in the new artistic traditions that began in the late nineteenth century and continue today.
- That modern and contemporary art transcend national boundaries and involve all forms of visual expression, including painting and sculpture, drawings, prints and illustrated books, photography, architecture and design, and film and video, as well as new forms yet to be developed or understood, that reflect and explore the artistic issues of the era.
- That these forms of visual expression are an open-ended series of arguments and counter arguments that can be explored through exhibitions and installations and are reflected in the Museum's varied collection.
- That it is essential to affirm the importance of contemporary art and artists if the Museum is to honor the ideals with which it was founded and to remain vital and engaged with the present.
- That this commitment to contemporary art enlivens and informs our evolving understanding of the traditions of modern art.
- That to remain at the forefront of its field, the Museum must have an outstanding professional staff and must periodically reevaluate itself, responding to new ideas and initiatives with insight, imagination, and intelligence. The process of reevaluation is mandated by the Museum's Museum of Modern Art tradition, which encourages openness and a willingness to evolve and change. Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 4:

In light of discussions regarding the non-voting status of life trustees, certain of whom remain very active in the Museum's affairs and leadership, at the May 29, 2018 annual meeting of the Board of Trustees, a resolution was proposed and approved allowing certain changes to the bylaws such that an Elective Trustee who has reached 75 years of age or older at the expiration of his or her current term may be elected either to continue to serve as an elective trustee, or to serve as a life Trustee; in certain appropriate circumstances the Trustee may also rotate off the Board. In view of the fact that with this amendment, an expanded panel of elective trustees will remain on the board past their 75th birthdays, a change to increase the maximum number of elective trustees from 50 to 70 was also proposed and approved by the Board.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:
The Museum's Form 990 is prepared by Grant Thornton LLP in coordination with the Museum's controller's office with input from many museum departments. It is then reviewed by Museum senior staff including the Director, the Chief Operating Officer, the Chief Financial Officer, and the General Counsel. The 990 is then presented to the Museum's Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees for review and approval. A copy of the 990 is provided to each member for the Board of Trustees electronically or in printed copy prior to filing the return. The 990 is available to the public through the Museum's website www.moma.org.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:
On an annual basis, the Museum distributes its code of conduct to all trustees and designated employees and requires that conflict of interest questionnaires be completed and returned for initial review by the Office of the General Counsel and the Director of Human Resources respectively.
Amongst other things, the conflict of interest questionnaire requires the responder: confirm that he or she has read and understands the code of conduct, agree to abide by it, identify whether he or she or a family member has any relationship with the Museum that may represent a conflict of interest as defined by the code and report any knowledge of a transaction which should be reported under the code, etc. When potential employee conflicts of interest are reported or identified, when necessary, an investigation is conducted to determine the facts and circumstances and recommendation of action, if warranted. Such action may include, but is not limited to, prohibiting the individual from participating in deliberations and decisions regarding the transaction in question, or taking disciplinary action, which in appropriate circumstances may include suspension or termination. The employee's supervisor is notified of an employee with identified conflicts and the action to be taken, if any. When potential trustee conflicts of interest are reported or identified, the general counsel's office makes a report to a committee of the Board of Trustees with a recommendation for action, if warranted, including but not limited to disclosure to the Board of Trustees, prohibiting the trustee from participating in and/or voting on the transaction in question, resignation from the Board of Trustees, etc. The code of conduct further provides that the committee make a recommendation to the chairman of the board for decision by the board.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:
The process for determining the compensation for the Museum director and certain key employees includes reviews and approval by the Board of Trustees' compensation subcommittee of the executive committee (the "committee") a committee of the governing body consisting of independent trustees, and not including the director or other staff members. In making its determination, the committee obtains and reviews comparability data with respect to compensation levels paid for comparable job positions obtained through the assistance of an expert compensation consultant which, in appropriate instances, includes survey data regarding compensation levels paid by similarly situated organizations for comparable employment positions, Form 990 data from other leading Museums and cultural and education institutions, as well as for profit institutions which may be interested in recruiting the Museum staff. The determination, deliberation and decisions made by the committee are contemporaneously substantiated and documented in minutes of the meeting which include the committee members present and participation, the compensation terms approved, the data relied upon and how it was obtained. The committee periodically meets and reviews, the last meeting was held on November 30, 2021.
