ANNOUNCEMENT

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MR. FRANCIS S. McILHENNY, JR. ELECTED OFFICER OF MUSEUM'S FILM LIBRARY CORPORATION

Mr. John Hay Whitney, President of the Film Library Corporation of the Museum of Modern Art, announces the election by the Corporation of Mr. Francis S. McIlhenny, Jr. as Vice-President and Director of the Film Library Corporation.

Mr. McIlhenny was educated at Princeton, graduating in 1932, and at the University of Pennsylvania Law School, receiving his degree in law in 1935. He practiced law in Philadelphia for a short time, then became associated with the Sun Oil Company in that city where he remained until 1948, having become Secretary-Treasurer in 1946. During the war he served as Aide to the Commandant of the Philadelphia Navy Yard with the rank of Lieutenant, U.S.N.R.

Mr. Whitney, in announcing this election, made the following statement: "The Board of Trustees of the Museum of Modern Art is most fortunate in being able to obtain the services of so able a man as Mr. McIlhenny in the capacity of Vice-President and Director of the Film Library Corporation. We look forward with great pleasure to this valuable association in carrying on the work of the Film Library."
