POETRY SERIES TO BE HELD AT THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

Five poetry readings will be presented in the auditorium of the Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street.

Monday, November 27: Carl Sandburg will sing and read selections from "Complete Poems," his forthcoming book which Harcourt Brace will publish this fall.

Monday, December 11: Katharine Anne Porter will discuss "Poetry in Translation" and will read French folk poetry.

Wednesday, January 3: Mary and Padraic Colum will read Irish poetry.

Monday, January 15: Wallace Stevens, Bollingen prize-winner, will read selections from his poems.

Wednesday, January 31: E.E. Cummings will read his poetry.

All programs will start at 9 p.m. Each one will be introduced by Lloyd Frankenberg, poet and author of "Pleasure Dome." The series is being sponsored by the Junior Council of the Museum.

Tickets are on sale at the Museum of Modern Art.

Series tickets: $7.50 for members (incl. tax)

$12.50 for non-members (incl. tax)

Single tickets, if available: $2.50, sold the night of the performance.
