FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

No. 79

Final plans for the gala opening of "Young Collectors," an exhibition of paintings lent by members of the Junior Council of the Museum of Modern Art to be shown in the Guest House of Mrs. John D. Rockefeller 3rd, 242 East 52 Street, on Thursday, November 4, were made by the Council's Benefit Committee at a meeting on Thursday, September 16. Mrs. Rockefeller is Honorary Chairman of the Council, which sponsors such Museum activities as the Art Lending Service and special exhibitions and sales of the work of younger artists.

Mrs. Donald Straus, Chairman of the Junior Council, and Mrs. Charles S. Dewey, Jr., Chairman of the Benefit Committee, were among those attending the planning meeting. The exhibition, selected by Alfred H. Barr, Jr., Director of the Museum of Modern Art Collections, includes seldom-exhibited paintings by modern European and American masters as well as work by younger artists. It will be open to the public every afternoon from November 5 through November 28. This will mark the first time Mrs. Rockefeller's Guest House, a glass and brick walled house built around a court and pool and designed by Philip C. Johnson, has been opened to the public.

Among the Council members active on the Benefit Committee are Mrs. Carleton Sprague Smith and Mr. Walter Bareiss, vice-chairmen, and Mrs. E. Powis Jones, Exhibition Chairman. Other Council members serving on the Committee are:
