FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

As a matter of efficiency and because Miss Fantl (see below) has been on the staff of the Museum since 1932, I am sending the information given below. For further information telephone me at the Museum, Circle 7-7471, or at my home, Gramercy 7-3849.

Mr. and Mrs. Siegfried Fantl of Savannah and New York announce the marriage on December 26th at Harrison, New York, of their daughter Ernestine to Mr. John Waynflete Carter of London, England. Mrs. Carter attended the Pape School, Savannah, and is a graduate of Wellesley College. She is Curator of the Department of Architecture and Industrial Art at the Museum of Modern Art, New York.

Mr. Carter, the son of Mrs. Thomas Carter of Eton, was educated at Eton College and King's College, Cambridge, and is a director of Charles Scribner's Sons Ltd., London. He is the author of several works in the field of rare books, among them, Binding Variants in English Publishing and (with Graham Pollard) An Enquiry into the Nature of Certain Nineteenth Century Pamphlets. He is the editor of New Paths in Book Collecting.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter will sail for England in February and will make their home in London.
