I hope you will find the enclosed Museum of Modern Art Bulletin listing painting and sculpture acquisitions during 1958 a useful addition to your library. This bulletin, along with Bulletin No. 4, Vol. XXV, supplements "Painting and Sculpture in the Museum of Modern Art: A Catalog." These publications, combined with the enclosed checklist provide a complete up-to-date listing of our painting and sculpture collection.

Caption material is self-explanatory except perhaps for the numerals which follow the name of the donor or purchase fund. These refer to the acquisition number given each object as it enters the collection and to the year in which it was acquired. Thus the first painting listed in the recent Bulletin, Atlan's Realm, was the 81st object accessioned in 1958.

A bibliography of the Museum Collections is also enclosed.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Shaw
Publicity Director

P.S. If you would like any of these reference books, please let me know.
