CURRENT EXHIBITIONS

Through THE INTIMATE WORLD OF LYONEL FEININGER. An invitation to an enchanted
March 12 land of fantasy, wit and sometimes pathos, peopled by creatures real, extraordinary and always human. Sixty watercolors, drawings, comic strips and prints, mostly from the artist's estate, never previously exhibited, and forty small wooden sculptures. (Auditorium gallery)
Opened January 15.

Through LE CORBUSIER: BUILDINGS IN EUROPE AND INDIA. An exhibition of the great
April 15 French architect's postwar work, shown through more than 150 enlarged color transparencies. Diagrammatic models illustrate the theories of planning and design which first established Le Corbusier's fame in the 1920's. The exhibition was selected by Arthur Drexler, Director, Department of Architecture and Design and is presented in collaboration with The Graham Foundation for Advanced Studies in the Fine Arts. It will also be shown at The Art Institute in Chicago. (First floor) Opened
