Nov. 27- THE MACHINE AS SEEN AT THE END OF THE MECHANICAL AGE. An exhibition of more
Feb. 9 than 125 paintings, sculptures, drawings, prints, and objects selected by K. G. Pontus Hultén, Director of the Moderna Museet in Stockholm. In their production artists of this century have often commented on the machine: the exhibition includes work by the Futurists, Dadaists, Constructivists, Surrealists, artists of the Bauhaus, and recent works shown for the first time selected by Mr. Hultén from a world-wide competition co-sponsored this year by Experiments in Art and Technology (EAT). The attitudes represented range from the optimistic view that man's mastery of technology will enable him to attain a utopian society, to the pessimistic view that machines may dominate and enslave mankind. Accompanied by an illustrated book which offers examples of the ample historical precedents for the ideas of 20th-century artists, as well as extensive comments by Mr. Hultén on more than 100 works, a checklist of the Museum's exhibition, and a bibliography. 1st floor, galleries 2,3,4.

This retrospective of de Kooning's work, including about 85 paintings and 50 sketches, drawings, collages and pastels, provides the first opportunity to see his whole development, from the mid-1930s to 1967, and to follow the logic which informs the artist's periodic swings between figure painting and abstraction which are uniquely fused in his style. CURRENT TEMPORARY EXHIBITIONS

- Through Nov. 3 IN HONOR OF DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. Contemporary American painting and sculpture donated by artists to be sold for the benefit of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. 1st floor, galleries 3 & 4. (Opened Oct. 31)
- Through Nov. 11 ARCHITECTURE OF MUSEUMS. During the last decade the world-wide proliferation of museums has resulted in much important architecture. It is not so surprising considering that almost every leading architect including Wright and Le Corbusier has been tempted into offering his own solutions to the problems of museum design. This exhibition presents several of the outstanding museums, such as Mies van der Rohe's New National Gallery for Berlin and Kevin Roche's Oakland Museum Center in California, in their architectural entirety. Examples of specific aspects of museum design and installation techniques are illustrated by museums from all over the world, both newly constructed and recently renovated buildings. Models, photographic enlargements, and slide projections illustrate the selected examples, with a brief historical introduction prefacing the entire show. Directed by Ludwig Glaeser, Curator, Department of Architecture & Design. 1st floor, gallery 2. (Opened Sept. 25)

- Through Nov. 11 FIVE MAJOR LOANS: PAINTINGS LENT BY MRS. BERTRAM SMITH AND MR. NORTON SIMON. The exhibition consists of Wassily Kandinsky's Picture With An Archer (c.1909) and Pablo Picasso's Woman Dressing Her Hair (1940) lent by Mrs. Bertram Smith; and Juan Gris' Still Life With Poem (1915), Franz Marc's Bathing Girls (c.1910), and Georges Rouault's Le Chinois (1937) lent by Norton Simon. Kahn was commissioned by the Committee to Commemorate the Six Million Jewish Martyrs - to design the monument for a site in Battery Park, alongside the Promenade near the Emma Lazarus Tablet and overlooking the Statue of Liberty. It consists of seven glass piers each 10' square and 11' high placed on a 66' square granite pedestal. Installed by Arthur Drexler, Director, Department of Architecture and Design. 1st floor, Main Hall. (Opened Oct. 17)
- Through Nov. 17 TRIBUTE TO MARCEL DUCHAMP. 1st floor, Main Hall.

The exhibition includes about 35 photographs from his most recent work: Irish landscapes, and a series of photographs of the ancient stone monuments in Ireland, England, and Brittany. Directed by Peter C. Bunnell, Associate Curator, Photography Department. Edward Steichen Photography Center, 3rd floor. (Opened Oct. 8)
- Through Jan. 26 RAUSCHENBERG - "SOUNDINGS". A 36-foot long, 8-foot high, 54-inch deep construction made up of large plexiglas panels on which varying images of chairs have been silk-screened. Between the panels are lights which are activated by a sound system which in turn is "triggered" by the public noise level. The work creates a constantly changing combination of overlapping images and has been exhibited in Amsterdam and Paris with great public interest. Also included in the exhibition, recently acquired by the Museum, are lithographs ranging in date from 1964 to 1968. They include six postscripts to 34 Drawings for Dante's Inferno and Autobiography, a 1967 color offset in three parts. Booster, a six-foot high 1967 color lithograph, is shown with three studies. Gamble and Water Stop, both gifts of the Celeste and Armand Bartos Foundation, as well as many others in the show, are the most recent works shown. Selected by Bates Lowry, Director, The Museum of Modern Art. Paul J. Sachs Galleries, 3rd floor. (Opened Oct. 22)
- Through Jan. 5 BRASSAI. A retrospective devoted to the noted Hungarian-born photographer who is famous for his probing views of Paris: its streets and cafes, its scribbled walls, and the faces of its artists.
