MUSEUM HONORS COLUMBIA PICTURES

On the occasion of the forty-fifth anniversary of Columbia Pictures The Museum of Modern Art will present an hour long compilation of scenes from major Columbia films narrated by Gregory Peck. The compilation film will be shown November 18, 6:30 PM to an invited audience in the Museum Auditorium.

Willard Van Dyke, Director of the Film Department, will welcome the guests and a buffet reception will follow the invitational showing.

The public will be invited to attend a series of Columbia Pictures selected by the Museum for presentation in the month of December.
