FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MUSEUM OFFICIALS TRAVELING

Willard Van Dyke, Director of The Museum of Modern Art's Department of Film leaves for Europe this week to visit three countries, Yugoslavia, Rumania and Hungary. He will finalize arrangements for the Museum's Yugoslav Film Show November 12 to 25, and search for new talent in both Hungary and Rumania for possible future film shows.

Adrienne Mancina, Assistant Curator in The Museum of Modern Art's Department of Film, will attend the San Francisco Film Festival. She will also scan the West Coast scene to discover fresh talent whose works she hope to introduce to New York audiences and critics, who attend the bi-monthly Cineprobe sessions at the Museum. These film encounters include audience participation and guest appearances by film-makers.
