At the Fourteenth Annual Meeting of the International Council of The Museum of Modern Art held on November 10 at the Spanish Institute in New York, Mrs. Donald B. Straus, President of the Council, announced the election of Alfredo Boulton as the new Chairman of the Council's Board. Mr. Boulton, who succeeds C. Douglas Dillon, is a prominent Venezuelan art historian and critic, art patron, and industrialist.

An authority on Venezuelan art and artists, Mr. Boulton is the author of numerous books and articles. His most recent publication is La Obra de Rafael Monasterios (1969). He is the director of H. L. Boulton & Co., S.A., Caracas, and Viassa International Airways. He is a Fellow of the National Academy of History, Caracas; a Foreign Member of the Colombian Academy of History and the National Academy of History, Ecuador; and a member of the Royal Academy of History, Madrid, and the Royal Academy of Fine Arts of San Fernando, Madrid. Born in 1908, he lives with his wife Yolanda Delgado Lairer in Caracas. They have one daughter Sylvia Boulton de Ellis.

Mrs. Straus also announced the election of four other new officers of the International Council: Vice-Chairman, Gordon Bunshaft (Senior Partner, Skidmore, Owings & Merrill); Senior Vice-President, Mrs. Bertram Smith (well-known collector and Trustee of The Museum of Modern Art); Secretary, Mrs. Douglas Auchincloss (Honorary Chairman, Museum's Junior Council; Board member of Phoenix Theatre and The Institute for Architecture and Urban Studies); and Assistant Treasurer, Warren Bradley (Assistant Treasurer, Chase Manhattan Bank).

The following officers of the Council were re-elected: Vice-Chairman, John de Menil (Trustee, Rhode Island School of Design and Institute of International Education; President, International Foundation for Art Research); Vice-President, Mrs. J. Lee Johnson III (President Amon Carter Museum of Western Art, Fort Worth);

Vice President, Mrs. John Barry Ryan (Board member, Metropolitan Opera Association, Inc.); and Treasurer, David H. Hughes (Senior Partner, Skidmore, Owings & Merrill).

Eighty-eight members of the Council are in New York from November 8 through 11 for their fourteenth annual meeting. Foreign members have arrived from Mexico City, Santiago, Caracas, Dusseldorf and Oslo.

Four discussion groups were held on November 9 dealing with the Latin-American, African, Australasian, and Overseas Library Programs of the International Council. These groups evaluated past programs and established priorities for future activities. The program recommendations concerning research and education, publications, film workshops, out-going and in-coming circulating exhibitions, and the exchange of people in each area were presented to the general membership at the business meeting November 10.

The Council members were guests at a black-tie champagne supper at the Museum following the world premiere of David Lean's Ryan's Daughter on November 9. They are viewing six special exhibitions at the New York Public Library, November 10, and on November 11 will be conducted on a walking tour of the SOHO district by Landmarks Commissioner Harmon Goldstone.

The International Council is a non-profit, membership organization of approximately 150 art patrons and leaders from throughout the world, founded in 1953 to extend the Museum's activities to a broad international public.
