MRS. DOUGLAS AUCHINCLOSS ELECTED TRUSTEE OF THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

David Rockefeller, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, announced today the election of Mrs. Douglas Auchincloss as a Trustee of The Museum of Modern Art.

Mrs. Auchincloss has been active in the Museum for many years. She has been a member of the Junior Council since 1951 and was Co-Chairman from 1964-67. Among the various Museum Trustee committees on which she serves are the Architecture and Design Acquisitions Committee, the Film Committee and the House Committee. She is Secretary of The International Council. She has been actively involved in a wide range of other Museum projects and programs such as the Children's Art Carnival in Harlem and The First Reader, a musical performed at the Museum for children last year in connection with the exhibition of works owned by Gertrude Stein and her family.

Mrs. Auchincloss is a sponsor of both the Phoenix House Summer Film Program and Harlem Theater & Workshop, and is a trustee of The Institute for Architecture and Urban Studies and of The Japan Society. She is a Fellow of the Morgan Library and a member of the Council of the Friends of the Whitney Museum of American Art.

A graduate of Radcliffe College, Mrs. Auchincloss formerly worked for Look, McCall's and Harper's Bazaar magazines. She and her husband Douglas, who is an associate editor of Time Magazine, live in New York City with their daughter Alexandra.
