MRS. ALFRED R. STERN-- BIOGRAPHY

Mrs. Alfred R. Stern, a Trustee of the Museum and the newly-elected President of The International Council of The Museum of Modern Art, New York, has been involved in Museum activities for many years. She has served as Co-chairman of the Museum's Junior Council, and is now a member of the following Museum Committees: Hospitality, Development, Prints and Illustrated Books, Publications and Education. She joined The International Council in 1968 and was elected a Trustee of the Museum in June, 1970.

Mrs. Stern is also a Vice President of The Northside Center for Child Development, an interracial psychiatric clinic for children and their families, and is on the Board of The Citizens Committee for Children.

Born in New York City, Joanne Stern was graduated from Smith College in 1944 and has been a member of the board of the Smith College Club of New York. She was formerly entertainment editor at Look Magazine. She is married to Alfred R. Stern, a former executive with the National Broadcasting Company who is now engaged in the cable television industry. The Sterns have three children.
