LECTURES ON D. W. GRIFFITH AT THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

In conjunction with a major retrospective of D. W. Griffith films, The Museum of Modern Art will present two illustrated lectures on Thursday evenings at 8 p.m. during the month of February.

On February 6, Ron Mottram, Assistant Professor at the State University of New York, Purchase, will discuss "Film History in the Making -- The Early Career of D. W. Griffith." The second lecture, "From Shot to Image -- On the Formal Aspects of Griffith's Biograph Work," will be given by Tom Gunning, Adjunct Lecturer at Brooklyn College, on February 20. Admission to these lectures is included with Museum admission: general public $2, students with current identification $1.25, members free.

The D. W. Griffith Centennial, Part I: The Biograph Films 1908-1913, will be shown at the Museum from January 23 through February 25. Part II: The Feature Films will follow from May 15 through June 29.
