

The Museum of Modern Art

TICKETING

HENRI DE TOULOUSE-LAUTREC, on view at The Museum of Modern Art from November 7, 1985, to January 26, 1986, promises to be a particularly popular exhibition. In order to ensure that the public may view the exhibition comfortably, without overcrowding in the galleries, tickets are issued on a time-designated basis. These tickets, which are included in the price of Museum admission, may be obtained adjacent to the exhibition only on the day of the planned visit. There are no advance ticket sales and tickets are only available at the Museum.

HENRI DE TOULOUSE-LAUTREC has been made possible by a grant from Mobil.
