CLEMENT GREENBERG TO LECTURE ON MORRIS LOUIS

In conjunction with the exhibition MORRIS LOUIS, the distinguished critic Clement Greenberg will discuss the life and work of the artist on Tuesday, December 9, 1986, at 8:30 p.m. An avid defender of the Abstract Expressionists before they had achieved widespread recognition, Mr. Greenberg is the author of the classic series of essays Art and Culture (1961). The University of Chicago Press is in the process of publishing four volumes of his writings. The first two volumes, Perceptions and Judgements, 1939-1944 and Arrogant Purpose, 1945-1949, will be available in October 1986. In addition to his important contributions as a writer, he is renowned as a lecturer.

Tickets for the lecture, which will be held in the Roy and Niuta Titus Theater 1, are $7 for the public, $6 for Museum members, and $5 for students. Tickets are available at the Museum's information desk or by sending payment with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Department of Education, The Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, New York, NY 10019.
