On June 19, 1993, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, The Museum of Modern Art holds its annual spring MoMA Family Festival, a Saturday-morning of activities for children and adults. The festival begins with refreshments in The Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Sculpture Garden, featuring the music of the Brazilian ensemble Orfeo, and tours of the LATIN AMERICAN ARTISTS exhibition, led by Family Program lecturers, during the Museum's nonpublic hours. Following in the Roy and Niuta Titus Theaters are a program of selected film shorts, reflecting the diversity of countries represented in the exhibition, and a performance by storyteller Marcia Lane, whose magical yarns are based on folktales from various cultures.

Admission to The MoMA Family Festival is free of charge, but space is limited. To preregister, call (212) 708-9695. Adults must be accompanied by children.
