

The Museum of Modern Art

For Immediate Release
September 1993

THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ART CONTINUES ITS FAMILY PROGRAMS Saturdays, October 2 through December 11, 1993

The Museum of Modern Art begins its fall season of Saturday-morning programs for children ages five to ten and their adult friends on October 2, 1993. Continuing through December 11, these programs include Family Gallery Programs, offered during the Museum's nonpublic hours, and Family Films. The schedule is as follows:

FAMILY GALLERY PROGRAMS

Saturdays, October 2 - December 11
10:00 - 11:00 a.m.

"One-at-a-Time"

Drop-in guided walks through the Museum's galleries introduce children and their adult friends to the diverse world of modern art. Each week, participants explore different aspects of the Museum's collection.

Admission is $5 per family and includes a free return pass. Preregistration is not required. Enter the Museum through the Edward John Noble Education Center, 18 West 54 Street. Doors open at 9:45 a.m. The schedule is as follows:

October 2	Out and About: The Sculpture Garden
October 9	Imagine That! Fantasy and Art
October 16	Find, Focus, Frame: Photography
October 23	Musical Mysteries: Painting and Sculpture
October 30	Squiggles and Squares: Joan Miró
November 6	From Comics to Cans: Pop Art
November 13	Double Take: The Art of Printmaking
November 20	On Your Mark, Get Set, Go! Art of the Sports Car
December 4	Breaking Out of the Mold: Modern Sculpture
December 11	Beautiful Beasts: Animals in Art

"Two-in-a-Row"

Held on two consecutive Saturdays, these workshops offer visual games and activities designed to engage the entire family in discussion about art. The program offers group instruction for children ages five to seven and eight to ten and their adult friends.

Preregistration is required. Admission is $15 per family and includes a free return pass. Enter through the Edward John Noble Education Center, 18 West 54 Street. The schedule is as follows:

October 2 & 9	Clues and Codes
October 16 & 23	Painting the Town
October 30 & November 6	Masks, Make-up, and the Art of Make Believe
November 13 & 20	Treasures and Trash
December 4 & 11	If Things Could Talk

FAMILY FILMS

Saturday, October 16, 23, 30, November 6, 13, 20
12:30 - 1:30 p.m.

The perfect antidote for TV blues, this season's program of classic film shorts vary from live action to animation to documentary to fantasy. Themes include Braving the Elements, Uncommon Animals, Fateful Folktales, About the Movies, Dreams of Sorts, and Winsome Stories. Museum staff introduce the films, provide notes, and suggest follow-up activities in the Museum's Galleries.

Family Films is planned in cooperation with Maureen Gaffney of the Media Center for Children. For individual film titles, consult the film listings for these dates. Films are shown in the Museum's Roy and Niuta Titus Theater 2. Admission is $5 per family. Tickets may be purchased at the Lobby Information Desk. Enter the Museum at 11 West 53 Street.

Family Programs are made possible by generous grants from The Herbert and Kitty Glantz Foundation, the National Endowment for the Arts, the J.E. and Z.B. Butler Foundation, Inc., and the Harriett Ames Charitable Trust. Additional funding is provided by The Contemporary Arts Council of The Museum of Modern Art, the G. & F. Armour Foundation, and individual members of the Trustee Committee on Education.

* * *

For further information or photographic materials, contact the Department of Public Information, 212/708-9750.

No. 41