In conjunction with the exhibition CY TWOMBLY: A RETROSPECTIVE (September 25, 1994 - January 10, 1995), The Museum of Modern Art presents an artist panel and two lectures. These programs are made possible by a generous gift from Mrs. Gustavo Cisneros in memory of Thomas Ammann. The schedule is as follows:

Tuesday, October 4

Artist Panel: Francesco Clemente, Brice Marden, Richard Serra
Moderator: Kirk Varnedoe, Chief Curator, Department of Painting and Sculpture, and organizer of the exhibition

Tuesday, October 11

Lecture: Rethinking Cy Twombly
Kirk Varnedoe

Tuesday, October 25

Lecture: The Latin Class
Rosalind Krauss, Professor of Art History, Columbia University, New York

The programs begin at 8:00 p.m. in The Roy and Niuta Titus Theater 1.

Tickets are $8.00, $7.00 members, $5.00 students and seniors; available at the lobby information desk.

CY TWOMBLY: A RETROSPECTIVE is generously supported by Lily Auchincloss. Additional support has been provided by Lufthansa German Airlines. An indemnity for the exhibition has been granted by the Federal Council on the Arts and the Humanities. The accompanying publication is made possible by a generous gift from Emily Fisher Landau. The exhibition brochure is made possible by a grant from Mr. and Mrs. Josef Froehlich, Stuttgart.
