(1) DURING THE WORLD WAR THERE WAS A GREAT MIGRATION NORTH BY SOUTHERN NEGROES. 71.212

(2) THE WORLD WAR HAD CAUSED A GREAT SHORTAGE IN NORTHERN INDUSTRY AND ALSO CITIZENS OF FOREIGN COUNTRIES WERE RETURNING HOME. 28.42.1

(3) IN EVERY TOWN NEGROES WERE LEAVING BY THE HUNDREDS TO GO NORTH AND ENTER INTO NORTHERN INDUSTRY. 71.213

(4) THE NEGRO WAS THE LARGEST SOURCE OF LABOR TO BE FOUND AFTER ALL OTHERS HAD BEEN EXHAUSTED. 28.42.2

(5) THE NEGROES WERE GIVEN FREE PASSAGE ON THE RAILROADS WHICH WAS PAID BACK BY NORTHERN INDUSTRY. IT WAS AN AGREEMENT THAT THE PEOPLE BROUGHT NORTH ON THESE RAILROADS WERE TO PAY BACK THEIR PASSAGE AFTER THEY HAD RECEIVED JOBS. 71.214

(6) THE TRAINS WERE PACKED CONTINUALLY WITH MIGRANTS. 28.42.3

(7) THE NEGRO, WHO HAD BEEN PART OF THE SOIL FOR MANY YEARS, WAS NOW GOING INTO AND LIVING A NEW LIFE IN THE URBAN CENTERS. 71.215

(8) THEY DID NOT ALWAYS LEAVE BECAUSE THEY WERE PROMISED WORK IN THE NORTH. MANY OF THEM LEFT BECAUSE OF SOUTHERN CONDITIONS, ONE OF THEM BEING GREAT FLOODS THAT RUINED THE CROPS AND, THEREFORE, THEY WERE UNABLE TO MAKE A LIVING WHERE THEY WERE. 28.42.4

(9) ANOTHER GREAT RAVAGER OF THE CROPS WAS THE BOLL WEEVIL. 71.216

(10) THEY WERE VERY POOR. 28.42.5

(11) IN MANY PLACES BECAUSE OF THE WAR FOOD HAD DOUBLED IN PRICE. 71.217

(12) THE RAILROAD STATIONS WERE AT TIMES SO OVER-PACKED WITH PEOPLE LEAVING THAT SPECIAL GUARDS HAD TO BE CALLED IN TO KEEP ORDER. 28.42.6

(13) DUE TO THE SOUTH'S LOSING MUCH OF ITS LABOR THE CROPS WERE LEFT TO DRY AND SPOIL. 71.218

(14) AMONG THE SOCIAL CONDITIONS THAT EXISTED WHICH WAS PARTLY THE CAUSE OF THE MIGRATION WAS THE INJUSTICE DONE TO NEGROES IN THE COURTS. 28.42.7
(15) Another cause was lynching. It was found that where there had been a lynching the people who were reluctant to leave at first left immediately after this. 71.219

(16) Although the Negro was used to lynching, he found this an opportune time for him to leave where one had occurred. 28.42.8

(17) The migration was spurred on by the treatment of the tenant farmers by the planter. 71.220

(18) The migration gained in momentum. 28.42.9

(19) There had always been discrimination. 71.221

(20) In many of the communities the Negro press was read continually because of its attitude and its encouragement of the movement. 28.42.10

(21) Families arrived at the station very early in order not to miss their train north. 71.222

(22) Another of the social causes of the migrants' leaving was that at times they did not feel safe, or it was not the best thing to be found on the streets late at night. They were arrested on the slightest provocation. 26.42.11

(23) And the migration spread. 71.223

(24) Child labor and a lack of education was one of the other reasons for the people wishing to leave their homes. 28.42.12

(25) After a while some communities were left almost bare. 71.224

(26) And people all over the South began to discuss this great movement. 28.42.13

(27) Many men stayed behind until they could bring their families north. 71.225

(28) The labor agent who had been sent south by northern industry was a very familiar person in the Negro counties. 27.42.14

(29) The labor agent also recruited laborers to break strikes which were occurring in the North. 71.226

(30) In every home people who had not gone north met and tried to decide if they should go north or not. 28.42.15

(31) After arriving north the Negroes had better housing conditions. 71.227

(32) The railroad stations in the South were crowded with people leaving for the North. 28.42.16

(33) People who had not yet come north received letters from relatives telling them of the better conditions that existed in the North. 71.228
(34) They left the South in large numbers and they arrived in the North in large numbers. 28. 42. 17

(35) The Negro press was also influential in urging the people to leave the South. 71. 22

(36) They arrived in great numbers into Chicago, the gateway of the West. 28. 42. 18

(37) The Negroes that had been brought north worked in large numbers in one of the principal industries which was steel. 71. 23

(38) They also worked in large numbers on the railroad. 28. 42. 19

(39) Luggage crowded the railroad platforms. 71. 23

(40) The migrants arrived in great numbers. 28. 42. 20

(41) The South that was interested in keeping the cheap labor made it very difficult for labor agents recruiting Southern labor for Northern firms. In many instances, they were put in jail and were forced to operate incognito. 71. 23

(42) They also made it very difficult for migrants leaving the South. They often went to railroad stations and arrested the Negroes wholesale which in turn made them miss their trains. 28. 42. 21

(43) In a few sections of the South the leaders of both groups met and attempted to make conditions better for the Negro so that he would remain in the South. 71. 23

(44) Living conditions were better in the North. 28. 42. 22

(45) They arrived in Pittsburgh, one of the great industrial centers of the North in large numbers. 71. 23

(46) Industries attempted to board their labor in quarters that were oft times very unhealthy. Labor camps were numerous. 28. 42. 23

(47) As well as finding better housing conditions in the North, the migrants found very poor housing conditions in the North. They were forced into overcrowded and dilapidated tenement houses. 71. 23

(48) Housing for the Negroes was a very difficult problem. 28. 42. 24

(49) They also found discrimination in the North, although it was much different from that which they had known in the South. 71. 23

(50) Race riots were very numerous all over the North because of the antagonism that was caused between the Negro and white workers. Many of these riots occurred because the Negro was used as a strike breaker in many of the Northern industries. 28. 42. 25
In many cities in the North where the Negroes had been overcrowded in their own living quarters they attempted to spread out. This resulted in more riots and the bombing of Negro homes.

One of the largest race riots occurred in East St. Louis.

The Negroes who had been North for quite some time met their fellow-men with disgust and aloofness.

One of the main forms of social and recreational activities in which the migrants indulged occurred in the church.

The Negro being suddenly moved from out of doors and cramped into urban life, contracted a great deal of tuberculosis. Because of this, the death rate was very high.

Among one of the last groups to leave the South was the Negro professional who was forced to follow his clientele to make a living.

The female worker was also one of the last groups to leave the South.

In the North the Negro had better educational facilities.

In the North the Negro had freedom to vote.

And the migrants kept coming.

Pablo Picasso. Spanish, born 1881. In France since 1904.

Studies and "Postscripts" for GUERNICA. May 1 - October 17, 1937. Extended loan from the artist. E.L.39.1093.1-38, 40-54, 56-59. Note: In January 1937, Picasso was commissioned to paint a mural for the Spanish Pavilion at the Paris World's Fair of that year. On April 27, Guernica, ancient capital of the Basques, was subjected to saturation bombing by German planes flying for General Franco, though it was not a military target. On May 1, Picasso made his first sketches for the mural. After it was finished in June he continued to explore some of its ideas in further studies. The mural itself, also on extended loan from the artist since 1939, is on view on the third floor.

Note: The Spanish poet Antonio Machado died in exile in 1939. This portrait was commissioned as part of a larger monument to the poet in Baeza, the Andalusian city where he taught for many years. Dedication of the monument, planned for February 20, 1966, was prohibited by the Spanish government authorities.

109. THE ARMORED TRAIN. 1915. Charcoal, 22 1/2 x 18 3/4". Benjamin Scharps and David Scharps Fund. 92.58

110. BARTOLOMEO VANZETTI AND NICOLA SACCO. (1931-32). Tempera on paper over composition board, 10 1/2 x 14 1/2". Gift of Abby Aldrich Rockefeller. 144.35. Note: One of twenty-three paintings from the Sacco-Vanzetti series. Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti were accused of murdering and robbing a paymaster and a guard at a shoe factory in Braintree, Massachusetts on April 15, 1920. They were subsequently convicted and sentenced to death. The case aroused worldwide protests based on allegations of trial irregularities and contradictory evidence, but primarily on the belief that the two Italian-American anarchists had been convicted for their radical political beliefs, not for the crime. The controversy persisted long after they were executed, despite pleas for clemency, on August 23, 1927.

Note: Inscribed: "If it had not been for these thing, I might have live out my life talking at street corners to scorning men. I might have die, unmarked, unknown a failure. Now we are not a failure. This is our career and our triumph. Never in our full life could we hope to do such work for tolerance, for joostice, for man's understanding of man as now we do by accident. Our words-- our lives -- our pains nothing! The taking of our lives--lives of a good shoemaker and a poor fish peddler--all! That moment belongs to us--that agony is our triumph."-- Bartolomeo Vanzetti in a letter to his son.

Note: In April 1931, eight Negro boys were convicted of the rape of two white girls in Scottsboro, Alabama and were sentenced to death. (A ninth boy, originally excluded because he was only 13 years old, was later convicted as well.) In the following years the case became a cause célèbre and went through a number of appeals and retrials, on the grounds that the defendants' right to counsel had been infringed, that the evidence did not support conviction, and that the juries had excluded Negroes. Slowly the convictions were quashed until by 1946 only one defendant remained in prison. SC 70
