FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Young People's Day will be observed at the Museum of Modern Art on Friday, December 27, from 10:30 A.M. to 1 P.M. The program has been arranged for the children of members of the Museum and their guests.

The program will include a tour of the galleries, particularly the Young People's Gallery in which a new exhibition, We Like Modern Art, has been arranged by the high school students participating in the Museum's Educational Project. There will also be a talk on Indian art by Rene d'Harnoncourt, director of the exhibition of Indian Art of the United States, which opens at the Museum January 22.

Promptly at eleven o'clock in the auditorium a specially selected film program will be shown. It will be composed of the following films: The Private Life of the Gannets, The Making of an Animated Cartoon and Doing the Lambeth Walk.
