

The Museum of Modern Art

For Immediate Release
April 1988

IN HONOR OF TOINY CASTELLI:
DRAWINGS FROM THE TOINY, LEO, AND JEAN-CHRISTOPHE CASTELLI COLLECTION

Through July 17, 1988

An exhibition of drawings from the personal collection of the well-known art dealers Toiny and Leo Castelli and their son Jean-Christophe is on view at The Museum of Modern Art through July 17, 1988. Organized by Bernice Rose, curator of drawings, IN HONOR OF TOINY CASTELLI: DRAWINGS FROM THE TOINY, LEO AND JEAN-CHRISTOPHE CASTELLI COLLECTION features thirty-nine works from the mid-fifties to the present by twelve major American artists.

By the time of her death last year, Mrs. Castelli had formed a small and very beautiful collection that includes a highly personal selection of drawings by artists that have been represented by the Castelli Gallery. At the center of the collection are seventeen drawings by Jasper Johns representing the artist's work from the start of his career to the present, beginning with the Flag and Target drawings of the mid-fifties through two drawings for his landmark series of paintings, The Seasons (1986). The exhibition also includes drawings by Dan Flavin, Ellsworth Kelly, Roy Lichtenstein, Robert Morris, Claes Oldenburg, Robert Rauschenberg, James Rosenquist, Ed Ruscha, Frank Stella, Cy Twombly, and Andy Warhol.

"Collections can be likened to self-portraits of the people who formed them," writes Ms. Rose. "This exhibition of Toiny Castelli's collection is a tribute to the extraordinary perception of the woman who formed it." On the occasion of this exhibition, Mrs. Castelli's husband, Leo, and their son, Jean-Christophe Castelli, have given two superb drawings to the Museum in her

- more -

