Dear George Maciunas:

I hope your campaign against New York attorneys is going full blast; not theirs against you. The postcard was sent on time.

I am glad that you might come to Yugoslavia. Of course, you can count on my help - should you need it.

If it happens that I am not in Belgrade - as I am working on some movies in W. Germany - my former wife and still a very good friend, Vukica Djilas, will gladly assist you.

She speaks excellent English (or rather: American) and knows a lot about filmmaking.

If you should feel like giving a lecture on Fluxus or producing some events - there's a Student Cultural Center here. They would be pleased to have you.

Anyway, note new address:

See you soon.

Dear George Macuinias:

Thank you for your extremely kind postcard. Here are the answers to your questions. My work is very modest (I do not pretend that its basic idea is original: it is traceable to Hugo Ball and certain German Dadaists): it consists of actions performed in everyday life which should remain anonymous, nonrepeatable and notrecorded (in texts, pictures etc.) and which may, or may not, lead to certain effects or chains of effects. As you see, by their nature they are not suitable for inclusion in Fluxus publications & manifestations.

HOWEVER this DOES NOT mean that I was not honoured by your offer to participate in Fluxus projects. I WOULD like to help by propagating Fluxus in every way. Perhaps you would permit me to arrange and translate in Serbian a collection of Fluxus manifestoes, games and other material? I have talked with some friends about organizing a Fluxus concert in Belgrade but we have come to conclusion that due to specific conditions here (I will not bother you with detailed analysis) situation is not ripe for it. In connection with this: it would be useful if you would send 10-15 copies of Fluxus newspaper for distribution here.

I was very interested in your description of forthcoming Fluxus II. All the more so because I was actively engaged in writing about the films (until 1962 when I decided it was unnecessary work) and still consider motion pictures as a sole interesting among traditional so called "arts".

Thanks for publications and games you have sent (I am awaiting them impatiently).

Yours,

B. Vucic
