CONDITIONS OF USE FOR THIS PDF

The images contained within this PDF may be used for private study, scholarship, and research only. They may not be published in print, posted on the internet, or exhibited. They may not be donated, sold, or otherwise transferred to another individual or repository without the written permission of The Museum of Modern Art Archives.

When publication is intended, publication-quality images must be obtained from SCALA Group, the Museum's agent for licensing and distribution of images to outside publishers and researchers.

If you wish to quote any of this material in a publication, an application for permission to publish must be submitted to the MoMA Archives. This stipulation also applies to dissertations and theses. All references to materials should cite the archival collection and folder, and acknowledge "The Museum of Modern Art Archives, New York."

Whether publishing an image or quoting text, you are responsible for obtaining any consents or permissions which may be necessary in connection with any use of the archival materials, including, without limitation, any necessary authorizations from the copyright holder thereof or from any individual depicted therein.

In requesting and accepting this reproduction, you are agreeing to indemnify and hold harmless The Museum of Modern Art, its agents and employees against all claims, demands, costs and expenses incurred by copyright infringement or any other legal or regulatory cause of action arising from the use of this material.

NOTICE: WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

TATE GALLERY REPRODUCTIONS.

Requests for permission to reproduce works of art in the Tate Gallery should be made in writing to:-

The Publications Manager,
The Tate Gallery,
London. S.W.1.

He would be grateful for the completion and return of the enclosed form, without which the application cannot be considered.

The fees payable (see below) cover only one occasion for each reproduction, and the reproduction must not be used for any other purpose than that stated in the application. The Trustees reserve the right to refuse further applications if the reproduction has not proved to be of sufficiently good quality.

Acknowledgment.

The following acknowledgment should be made, in proximity to the reproduction:-

"Reproduced by courtesy of the Trustees of the Tate Gallery, London".

This applies to monochrome as well as coloured reproductions.

MONOCHROME REPRODUCTIONS.

The copyright of official photographs is the property of the Tate Gallery Trustees. Permission to reproduce must be obtained in advance.

A reproduction fee of one guinea is charged in addition to the cost of the print; two guineas for advertising.

In the case of film-strip made from black and white prints, special terms may be granted.

Permission is not given to outside photographers to make monochrome photographs of pictures.

Negatives exist of most pictures in the Tate Gallery, and many details of paintings have also been photographed. Prints may be obtained from the Publications Department at the following prices:-

8 x 6 inc. (approx.)	3/6 each,	postage 8d. extra.
12 x 10 " "	7/6 "	" 1/- "

FOR STUDY PURPOSES ONLY. NOT FOR REPRODUCTION.

COLOUR REPRODUCTION.

Permission to make colour reproductions of the Tate Gallery pictures will be given only to accredited professional photographers.

The charge payable is five guineas and for advertising seven guineas.

Pictures not on exhibition will be photographed in the photographic studio, but pictures on exhibition will be photographed where they hang; no picture can be unfitted for photographic purposes. Photography must be done outside Gallery hours, either from 8.30 - 9.45 a.m. or after 6 p.m. (by appointment) and where the fee has been waived, the applicant will be responsible for the pay at overtime rates, of the attendant assigned to supervise.

The making of an appointment will be understood to imply the acceptance of the following:-

(a) Pictures are to be handled by the Tate Gallery staff only. The responsibilities involved make this an important rule, and if any photographer is found to infringe it by touching the picture himself, permission to photograph on future occasions may be withheld from him or from the firm employing him.

(b) The Trustees request that a copy of each coloured reproduction be forwarded to the Publication Manager for record purposes.

(c) The Trustees reserve the right to require the blocks to be deposited at the Tate Gallery after use, i.e. after the type has been distributed. In that case they will be available for further printing upon application being made. A charge of one guinea will be made upon each occasion.

Permission to make colour film-strip is not granted.

REMISSION OF FEES.

Full consideration will be given to claims for the remission of fees in the case of learned publications. Applications for such consideration must be made in writing. The Publications Manager will, however, issue a permit only upon the receipt of the completed form of application, which includes the signed undertaking that the conditions mentioned above have been accepted by the applicant.

COPYRIGHT

In English law, all paintings and drawing by living artists or artists who died less than 50 years ago are in copyright. The Gallery owns the copyrights of over 400 of these works, but in other cases written authority must be obtained from the copyright holder or his agent. The Gallery staff will endeavour to supply the names and addresses of the persons who should be contacted, but where these are unknown it will be necessary to complete a form accepting full responsibility for settling any claims which might be made.

Any fee payable to the copyright holder is additional to the reproduction fee charged by the Publications Department, but no extra charge is made when the Gallery itself owns the copyright.

ROBERT FRASER 19 East 71 Street New York 21 YU 8-9638

Dear Mr. Soby,

As I believe you are at present engaged in writing a book on Francis Bacon, I am herewith sending you a photograph of what seems to me be a fine example of his work, at present in my possession, in case you may be interested in using it for reproduction.

Full details of the painting have been marked on the back of the photograph.

Yrs. Sincerely

Robert Fraser

Dear Miss Lessore,

Thank you for your letter of October 12 and for the photograph of your Bacon. I have spoken to the collector I mentioned but unfortunately he still insists on trying to find a good Bacon Cardinal.

With reference to Sickert, we are in process of acquiring one and will therefore not be able to consider yours further.

With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

Andrew C. Ritchie

Dear Mr. Ritchie,

I enclose a photograph of a painting by Francis Bacon, which was done about four years ago, and which I have just bought from a private collector. The body is a rather wonderful green. Even for a Bacon it is an exceptionally haunting picture, and one that I would want to keep for myself if I could afford to be a collector.

The price is £250.

As far as I know, this painting has never been publicly exhibited. I have not yet offered it to anyone else. Please let me know if you are interested.

Are you still interested in a Sickert ?

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Helen Lessore
