come to New York so you won't have to spend so much time in Rome? We could all share wouldn't have to be lost like this.

This afternoon we went to see Tony and had a great time rummaging around the Avenue Jacques Mawas before we finally got to his place on the 6th floor of one of about 8 big new apartment houses.

He kept his colored pictures out all the while we were there, though he called from an adjoining room to know how much longer the next visit. His oil paintings are too much like the drawings & not ~~as good as~~ ^{as good as} the drawings, so I thought; they are all curious dull brown and rather weird and memorable —

Then we had tea with Miss Etta Cove and she is really Mr. Gode's fool, though pretty much stuck in the early Matisse period — with occasional outbursts of early Picasso.

She gave Alfred a grand Matisse lithograph for a wed-good measure gave me one also.

pretty collapsed from the relative stupidity of the Leviathan 2nd Class. It was a Saturday noon, so, after a long season with Pat and Mrs. Hayes and delighted inspection of the ~~ingenious~~ ingenious hanging of the summer show we danced at the Casino and saw the Garrick Pavilion, which include one perfectly swell scene of Wholen's return to Wansacker's, with antiphonal singing pretty inspired. Also a young friend of Dan's and mine who plays the piano vigorously, but not nearly enough.

Renting the apartment was naturally the focal event. Miss Helland was back so we searched through Beckman Hill and discovered a most lucky break. One of the first apartments rented had just been put up for sub-lease and we took and there was nothing else to be considered. It is 7 B, 2 living room, large foyer, bed room, bath & kitchenette

Before I neglect it I should mention that I could get nothing for Alfred from Kristians Torsy because Torsy has sold some oil paintings to Marie Harrison at figures sufficiently elevated to permit his beating it to Touloz with the poor tan Anita. Sorry!
