The images contained within this PDF may be used for private study, scholarship, and research only. They may not be published in print, posted on the internet, or exhibited. They may not be donated, sold, or otherwise transferred to another individual or repository without the written permission of The Museum of Modern Art Archives.

When publication is intended, publication-quality images must be obtained from SCALA Group, the Museum's agent for licensing and distribution of images to outside publishers and researchers.

If you wish to quote any of this material in a publication, an application for permission to publish must be submitted to the MoMA Archives. This stipulation also applies to dissertations and theses. All references to materials should cite the archival collection and folder, and acknowledge "The Museum of Modern Art Archives, New York."

Whether publishing an image or quoting text, you are responsible for obtaining any consents or permissions which may be necessary in connection with any use of the archival materials, including, without limitation, any necessary authorizations from the copyright holder thereof or from any individual depicted therein.

In requesting and accepting this reproduction, you are agreeing to indemnify and hold harmless The Museum of Modern Art, its agents and employees against all claims, demands, costs and expenses incurred by copyright infringement or any other legal or regulatory cause of action arising from the use of this material.

NOTICE: WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

UNITED NATIONS WEEK 1950
THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

Managers, Director
 ASSISTANT DIRECTOR WARREN K. ...
 JOSE ...

Date Sept. 12, 1950 16-24

To: Mr. Griffith
 From: Juliet Barrett

Re: Film Showing for U.N. Week

Mr. Wheeler agreed with Mrs. Russell of the American Association for the United Nations, Inc. (BU 8-3000, Ext. 19) that we would show a U. N. documentary film at each of our film showings during United Nations Week, October 16th to 24th.

I asked her to get in touch with you about it.

The year United Nations Week will be October 16th to 24th in 1950. The American Association for the United Nations in cooperation with the New York City committee and the sponsoring organizations listed on the back of this page are anxious to make this year's UN week an outstanding tribute to the United Nations in as many fields as possible. As the Museum of Modern Art is a center of contemporary art and ideas in the city, we are most anxious to enlist your aid.

We realize that the Museum's program must be planned long in advance so that an elaborate exhibit would be impossible, but we wondered if you could help us in any or all of the following ways:

- 1) Some kind of exhibition to promote the UN theme, - perhaps photographs textiles or even something simpler
- 2) Allow the American Association for the United Nations to have a small information booth in your lobby to distribute material on the United Nations and to ask people to sign a pledge of support to the UN. (sample enclosed)
- 3) Show in your film theatre during that week and especially on United Nations Day, Tuesday October 24th, UN documentary films, with which I believe you are familiar.

I am leaving town today but will call again next week in hopes of finding you available for a few minutes discussion of the above.

Sincerely yours,
Mary F. Russell

Dear Mr. Wheeler

After talking with your secretary about an appointment, it seems advisable to outline first in a letter the project on which we hope to have your cooperation.

As you know United Nations Week will be October 16th to 24th in 1950. The American Association for the United Nations in cooperation with the New York City committee and the sponsoring organizations listed on the back of this page are anxious to make this year's UN week an outstanding tribute to the United Nations in as many fields as possible. As the outstanding museum of contemporary art and ideas in the city, we are most anxious to enlist your aid.

We realize that the Museum's program must be planned long in advance so that an elaborate exhibit would be impossible, but we wondered if you could help us in any or all of the following ways:

- 1) Some kind of exhibition to promote the UN theme, - perhaps photographs textiles or even something simpler
- 2) Allow the American Association for the United Nations to have a small information booth in your lobby to distribute material on the United Nations and to ask people to sign a pledge of support to the UN. (sample enclosed)
- 3) Show in your film theatre during that week and especially on United Nations Day, Tuesday October 24th, UN documentary films, with which I believe you are familiar.

I am leaving town today but will call again next week in hopes of finding you available for a few minutes discussion of the above.
