Attention: Mr. Barreca

Dear Mr. Barreca:

I am enclosing three slips for articles which have come for our Latin American competition as explained in the enclosed program.

These articles are original drawings for pieces of furniture, and may include small samples of suggested materials or possibly models of the pieces. These are not to be produced and there are no commercial connections here, as we are simply trying to discover designers of ability in Latin America. The drawings may be exhibited in this and other museums.

Will you start the machinery for procuring these for us. we must have them by Tuesday, January 21, for a jury meeting. If paying some small customs charges will expedite this, we shall be glad to do so.

I understand that it will be necessary for me to come with your representative to the customs, and will be ready if you will let me know when.

I shall appreciate your rushing this as much as possible.

Yours very truly,

Noyes
