Kokoschka

Dear Director Wheeler,

I thank you very much for your willingness to show my work in your museum. As you already might have heard from my very good friend Mr. Neurath, the Biennale in Venice invited me to participate with an important collection of my works, the other exhibition at the Biennale being Van Gogh. As my work has been banned for political reasons in Europe, I must accept this opportunity to satisfy the curiosity of the younger artists who ask me for spiritual guidance. Therefore I am asking you ~~to~~ not to postpone my exhibition in New York later than March 49. I understand that about the exact date you will come to an agreement with Mr. Duncan Phillips.

I have heard from Mr. Plaut that he is writing the preface to the catalogue and I am most anxious that at least 8 coloured plates should be included, in the best technique available, as so far my work in the States had to be judged by black and white prints alone.

Very sincerely yours,

Dr.Franz Matsch
Consul General of Austria

late

As Iam getting so many letters from your country, aspecially from younger artists, I believe that there is a lively interest in the first representative exhibition of my work over there and that it would be of great value to have as many coloured reproductions as possible in the catalogue. Mr. Plaut will no doubt discuss these things with you and I hope that you will come to an agreement. I am yours very sincerely

Dear Mr. Wheeler:

On behalf of the Austrian Minister, Dr. L. Kleinwaechter, who is at present out of town, I have the honor to thank you for your gracious invitation to attend the first showing of our great artist Oskar Kokoschka at your most distinguished Museum. Dr. Kleinwaechter will not return to Washington before the first half of August and, therefore, I regret to say that he will not be in a position to attend the opening. The Austrian Consul General in New York, Dr. Franz Matsch, and the ranking members of the Consulate General will, however, be very happy to accept your kind invitation.

As for myself, I shall, unfortunately, not be able to leave Washington at this time, since a number of my colleagues are on vacation. This is a matter of great regret to me, for, apart from the importance of the first showing of our distinguished artist in the Museum of Modern Art, I am a great admirer of Kokoschka.

Thanking you again for your courtesy,
I remain

Yours very sincerely,

Dear Mr. Plaut:

All of the loans to the Kokoschka show went to the packer last week and are now being shipped to the lenders. Our receipts are in the mails. We assume that the Boston Institute will handle the covering letters of acknowledgement to the lenders, if you have not already done so.

It was a great pleasure to hang such a fine set of pictures. The show was very well attended here with the interest continuing through to the very close of the exhibition. As you undoubtedly know, Kokoschka feels it to be the best selected of all the recent retrospectives.

Dear Miss Marston:

There is just one thing that Miss Dudley would like you to confirm before we return the Kokoschka show. On your list of New York City loans there are two starred (*) paintings, Exodus, Col de Sfa and Landscape, Hungary. Both of these paintings have elaborate original frames, which, according to your list, are to be returned to you and the paintings returned unframed to their owners.

This seemed strange in view of the fact that all the frames we are returning to you are travelling frames and these are the only exceptions.

We are sending the travelling frames and boxes to you by Railway Express, setting the deadline that they can leave this museum for Boston at October 21st. Does this give you plenty of time?

We will return Mrs. Blodgett's paintings, Portrait of a Boy and Dancing Couple to the Portland Art Museum.

In regard to the material which was framed by us, will it be possible to return these frames to us some time in October. As you may know, we are opening an exhibition of Lyonel Feininger and Jacques Villon on October 7th. Some of Feininger's watercolors are unframed and we hope very much to use the frames which have housed the Kokoschka graphic work. For our own showing, we will show them under glass, but this exhibition is going on tour and we will need these frames for that purpose.

Dear Monroe:

Thank you for your kind letter of July 22. We would like very much to collaborate with you in the Nadelman exhibition project. The figures seem to me to be entirely proper and reasonable; there are one or two items which I should like to discuss with you and Miss Ulrich before committing ourselves formally to the acceptance of the costs, but these are minor items.

I note that the exhibition is scheduled to close in New York on November 28. Our schedule is fixed through the end of February, and we could only take the Nadelman show as of the first of March. I should like to propose, therefore, that you give consideration to our taking it for the period March 1 to April 15 (the dates might be subject to a few days variation one way or the other).

As to the Kokoschka schedule: We have fixed dates for the Boston, Washington, St. Louis, San Francisco and New York shows. I had thought that copies of this schedule had been sent to all of the participants, but I may well be in error on this point. In any case, you will note that we have put you down for the summer of 1949, and that the Washington showing is to follow the Boston showing. I trust that all this is in order.

Dear Jim:

Many thanks for your letter of July twenty-second. I, too, am sorry to have missed you because I was particularly anxious to confirm our summer dates for the Munch exhibition. We have scheduled it from June twentieth through September tenth and if, for any reason, you cannot accommodate these dates, please let me know. As you know, our largest attendance is now during the summer months when students and teachers are here from all over the country as well as people going through New York to Europe and there are also the conventions; furthermore, New Yorkers have more time for exhibitions in summer than winter.

I have given instructions to increase the display of the Kokoschka catalogs at the entrance to the Museum. Naturally we are extremely desirous to sell this publication because I am afraid that our commitment of 2,000 copies exceeds considerably the current demand. I think it would be unwise of us to have the trade copies for sale until we have disposed of the paper bound copies which we have bought outright. I am sure that you can understand that it is to our interest to make every effort to liquidate this capital investment.

What sort of arrangement have you made with Chanticleer Press for the Munch book? I would like to have the details of this and the exact unit cost of the paper copies as soon as possible. I am delighted to hear that you are pleased with the plans for the exhibition. We are looking forward to it eagerly.

Dear Monroe:

I came down to the Kokoschka opening Tuesday night but arrived rather late and had the misfortune to miss you. I thought the show was very well installed and I hope you will pass on my congratulations to the person responsible.

Actually, the only thing that disturbed me in the slightest degree was the lack of prominence given our Kokoschka catalogue. To be sure, plenty of copies were on display at your sales desk but not a single copy was in evidence in the exhibition area and no notice of the publication confronts the gallery visitor at the entrance to the exhibition, a practice which I know you follow with your own publications. It would surely stimulate sales to have tear sheets, cover, price, etc. displayed at the entrance to the exhibition and I should be most grateful if you would do this.

One other thought: Steiner of Chanticleer told me that you were reluctant to place copies of the trade edition of the Kokoschka catalogue on sale in the Museum because the trade edition would inhibit sales of the museum edition. Needless to say, this is entirely up to you, but I should be pleased were you to find that the museum edition were going well enough to permit you to handle the trade edition as well. This, again, would conform to your practice of handling both hard and soft covered editions of your own publications.

I am particularly sorry to have missed you because I wanted to give you a running account of the Oslo negotiations for the Munch exhibition. I am only recently back and I am now certain that we are to have a very great show. We have secured the wholehearted cooperation, at last, of the Norwegian Government, the City of Oslo and all other parties concerned. I have just today had a letter from Deknatel who has concluded his work in Norway, with one hundred percent success. I look forward to telling you about all this in detail when next we meet.

With all good wishes and thanks,

Yours most cordially,

Dear Miss Rex:

I have just received your letter of July seventh regarding loan receipts being sent to lenders to the Kokoschka exhibition. Inasmuch as most of the lenders have been sent one of our forms, in anticipation of their return, which states that the loans will be coming from the Museum of Modern Art in mid-September, it hardly seems necessary for you to bother. Within the next month, I will get the same forms to the New York lenders and the museums, which procedure will complete contact with every lender. When all this information is in hand, I will get it to you.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Miss Marston:

As you probably know, we have just received the Kokoschka Exhibition from Wilmington. Miss Dudley has asked me to write to you about sending loan receipts to the lenders notifying them that their loan is now at the Museum of Modern Art. We were wondering if you sent loan receipts that would have given this information, and, if you have, whether it is necessary for the lenders to receive additional receipts directly from us.

Did you ever hear from Miss Bonestell? The day the sculpture went off to you we received a wire telling us to have it sent to her at 50 East 58th Street. I wrote her immediately that we had sent it off to you on that date. I have not written her of the damage since your description of said damage sounded like repetition of previous trouble and I knew you were having it repaired.

Mr. Pearlman sent his portrait to Wilmington for their showing so that will be coming straight to New York with the rest of the paintings. I hope that you have received the graphic work.

Two reproductions in the catalogue do not match the paintings which you will be receiving. These are #29, Mother and Child and #60, Montana. We have received apologies from the printer etc. for the mix-up. noted BCR

I have written all the lenders here and in Europe to confirm the return of their loans. No word from any of the European sources as yet but when all this material is in hand, I will forward it to you.

I do hope all goes well and that it will continue so.

Dear Miss Dudley:

As you doubtless know, Mr. Wight talked with Mr. Wheeler to see if it would be satisfactory for Wilmington to have the Kokoschka material trucked unpacked to New York on July fifth. Mr. Wheeler agreed to this and I wrote Miss Moore. She called yesterday to say that she had made arrangements with a trucking concern to do just this. They estimate their time of arrival in New York City between three and four o'clock. If they get snarled up in traffic, how late will there be some one at the Museum to receive the shipment?

In my letter to Miss Moore I asked that any material, especially the graphic material, not shown be forwarded immediately to you. I do hope that receiving the stuff unpacked will compensate for the loss of those days.

With kind regards,

Sincerely,

Dear Miss Dudley:

Thank you for your recent letter. To take it up in the order presented: Kokoschka boxes 8-2 and 19-4 are touring with the show. We would greatly appreciate your having the boxes in which the exhibition is touring returned to us at your convenience. This applies to the frames also. If you would let me know when this material is available, it may be that it would be cheaper to have our truck bring them back, although Expressage in one lot is about the cheapest method.

I have had no luck in contacting Miss Bonestell. I wrote her to the effect that we felt the head was too fragile to tour, and asked her what she wished us to do about returning it to her. This was last October and no word as yet. I am planning to come to New York on Thursday of this week and shall bring this piece for your showing by hand, as well as some Nadelman drawings. The cases went off to Hahn and you today at noon. The bronze is almost repaired.

I will try to find you on Thursday.

Hastily,

Natalie Marston

Dear Miss Marston:

Quite a few questions in regard to the Kokoschka show have arisen in my mind since our last correspondence.

We have received 19 empty boxes from you, and they are as follows:

E - 1

However, we have not received BX - 8 - 2, which will contain two European paintings: The Roe and Lyon. Nor have we received BX - 19 - 4, which will contain the following four European paintings: Portrait of Caro (#10), Tempest (#23), Lac D'Annecy (#42) and Countess Drogheda (#58) Would you track these boxes down and let us know about them at your earliest convenience.

The Museum of Modern Art Archives, NY	Collection:	Series.Folder:
	MoMA Exhs.	415.3

Also I was wondering what you would like to have us do with the touring boxes which I assume were made especially for the Kokoschka exhibition. Do you wish to have them returned to you or may we dispose of them as we see fit? The same question applies also to your traveling frames.

We are arranging to have Mrs. Warburg's frame for Exodus repaired immediately.

I suppose that the self portrait clay sculpture #63 that was too fragile to send on tour has been returned to Miss Blanche Bonestell. Would you be good enough to confirm this statement for us as Miss Bonestell has been very difficult to contact.

In regard to the Nadelman exhibition, we have reported to our insurance company the fact that the bronze figure is being repaired at the Fogg Museum. Will you let us know the cost of repairs as soon as possible.

Very sincerely yours,

Registrar.

Dear Jim:

We have had to make a slight change in our schedule which will mean that we would like to open the Kokoschka show a little later than we had planned. Our dates now are July nineteenth through October second, 1949. If this closing date of October second requires any extension of loans from the lenders, we shall be glad to write to them directly so that this change in our dates will not cause you any extra trouble.

In regard to the Kokoschka book, we find that we are unable to accept the increase in price for the Museum's copies of the book and Mr. Steiner of the Chanticleer Press has said that this would be agreeable to them, in view of the large number of copies we are purchasing. I think that in view of the fact that the cloth bound edition of this book is reasonably priced at $3.75, it would be unwise to try and sell the paper edition for more than $1.75.

If you would like to have copies of the Nadelman book for sale during your exhibition we could provide them to you at a discount of 40% of the retail price.

Dear Porter:

What with the opening of the Kokoschka show and the Annual Meeting of our Corporation, my correspondence has fallen off temporarily. I apologize for not having answered sooner your letter of September 24th concerning the Kokoschka show and that of September 27th concerning the Nadelman show.

Taking the various questions up in order:

1) We shall handle the packing of the Kokoschka exhibition for circuit in Boston. The packing will be done professionally and I don't believe it necessary to send a representative of the Museum to Boston to supervise the operation unless you wish to do so. Miss Dudley had suggested this in view of the fact that the Museum, as you know, is handling the insurance for the circuit. We shall leave the question of Museum supervision of the packing entirely to your discretion.

2) I have noted the contents of your letter pertaining to the Nadelman show and we shall look into the question of handling the exhibition between New York and Boston. We are looking forward to the exhibition under the terms which you outline .

September 24,1948

Dear Jim:

Following our telephone conversation I investigated the practicability of our receiving and preparing the Kokoschka exhibition for circulating to the subscribing institutions.

Unfortunately, immediately following your closing, when the organization and packing of the exhibition would have to be undertaken we are faced with the opening of three new exhibitions within a period of ten days. This means that most of our receiving space will be filled with outgoing and incoming material and that the staff of the museum will be occupied with the problems of packing and unpacking - and the checking, preparation and installation necessary for these shows.

We shall therefore have to proceed with the plan originally discussed between you and Monroe. If you will advise us in advance of your schedule for packing and shipping the Kokoschka exhibition from Boston we shall provide you with a representative either from this department or the Registrar's office to assist in the supervision of the packing preparations.

I shall await further word from you. With all good wishes.

Dear Miss Hesener:

I am enclosing another shipment notice. In regard to the four paintings from Zurich to come by air, we have cabled them for exact information as to the departure date, so in case they don't send it, I have appended the estimated date of departure. If we do hear from them I will, of course, forward the information to you.

Dear Miss Hesener:

I am enclosing two more overseas shipments notices. One is the result of a cable from Zurich today, advising us that the three paintings to be shipped by air will be shipped next week rather than this, and requesting added coverage on two of them.

The other notice, also a correction, advises of the arrival of the paintings from Venice, by sea. In my letter I referred to this shipment as six paintings, but I have since found that there are seven.

Dear Miss Marston:

Thank you for the lists of the Kokoschka Exhibition. Since our insurance report is prepared as of today's date, I would like to confirm with you the amount now in your hands. I understand from your letters that we should report the value as of August 31, as $ 11,485. If the Venice and Rotterdam loans have arrived, they should be added to this amount, making the total value $ 48,410. If the foreign loans are not in your possession they should be included in the value you report to us next month. Will you please write me about this as soon as possible.

It will be less confusing if you will report to us only the total values of loans received each month. For instance, $ 11,485. or $ 48,410 received in August and then report the total value of loans received in September. The monthly totals should include foreign as well as domestic loans. The ocean or air transit insurance on the foreign loans covers them only until delivered. They must then be included in our monthly report with domestic loans.

Please report shipments from abroad directly to Dunn and Fowler with copies to us, as you have been doing. As you know, these reports of shipments should include the dates shipped, names of carriers, number of paintings and total values. If a shipment arrives without previous notice of the shipping date, report the date of arrival, carrier, etc.

The London shipment of Dolce Bridge is covered provisionally, but it will be necessary to report it to Dunn and Fowler again when you know the shipping date and name of the carrier.

FOR STUDY PURPOSES ONLY. NOT FOR REPRODUCTION.

To sum up the above, a report of each foreign shipment is to be sent directly to Dunn and Fowler with copies to us, and the total value of loans received during the month (both foreign and domestic) is to be reported to us as of the last day of each month.

Please forgive this rather involved letter, but I was afraid I had not made this procedure very clear during our telephone conversation.

Very sincerely yours,

Registrar.

DHD:bcr

P.S. After all loans are received will you please send us an itemized list showing values. The foreign loans should be listed under the entry numbers assigned to them by U.S.Customs, dates of arrival and names of carriers on which they were shipped.

Dear Miss Dudley:

In order to avoid any further Marston-inspired confusion, I am enclosing two copies, one for your retention and one for the insurance company, of further Kokoschka works to be insured.

The Dolce Bridge, which is coming from London presumably by air, is to be insured for $2500 and the policy covering it in England expired on August 20th. Needless to say, I would feel a good deal better if it was insured by us soon.

I just received this morning the insurance valuations for the six drawings loaned us by Curt Valentin. They have been in our possession, however, since Monday morning, August 23rd.

Dear Jim:

I am happy to hear that you have decided to collaborate with us on the Kadelman exhibition. It is going to be a very exciting show and I know that your public will be as interested in it as ours. We have noted that you wish to have the exhibition beginning March first and I shall, therefore, try to get someone to take it between our closing and your opening, which might reduce the expenses to both of us. The only prospect at the moment is the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, of which our old friend, Leslie Cheek, has just become the new director.

I think the Kokoschka schedule looks fine. We ourselves would like to open it on July nineteenth and keep it on until Labor Day, but San Francisco can send the show directly to us when it closes there.

With many thanks and best regards, I am,

Ever yours,

Dear Monroe:

Thank you for your kind letter of July 22. We would like very much to collaborate with you in the Nadelman exhibition project. The figures seem to me to be entirely proper and reasonable; there are one or two items which I should like to discuss with you and Miss Ulrich before committing ourselves formally to the acceptance of the costs, but these are minor items.

I note that the exhibition is scheduled to close in New York on November 28. Our schedule is fixed through the end of February, and we could only take the Nadelman show as of the first of March. I should like to propose, therefore, that you give consideration to our taking it for the period March 1 to April 15 (the dates might be subject to a few days variation one way or the other).

Kokoschka

As to the Kokoschka schedule: We have fixed dates for the Boston, Washington, St. Louis, San Francisco and New York shows. I had thought that copies of this schedule had been sent to all of the participants, but I may well be in error on this point. In any case, you will note that we have put you down for the summer of 1949, and that the Washington showing is to follow the Boston showing. I trust that all this is in order.

With kindest regards,

Most sincerely,

Dear Jim:

I enclose herewith my estimate of costs for the Nadelman exhibition which, as you will see, shows that your share of joint sponsorship would amount to eight hundred dollars. The exhibition is scheduled to close here on November twenty-eighth and you could have it as soon thereafter as you would like.

I hope that you will be able to give me your reply about this as soon as possible because Mr. Kirstein has just turned in his text for the book, and, if you are going to join us, we would like to have the name of the Institute of Contemporary Art on the title page.

Duncan Phillips came in the other day and said you had not yet established with him definite dates for the Kokoschka exhibition. If it could be arranged, we would like to hold it here in the summer of 1949, opening the show in July, when, I am quite sure, no other museum would want it. I believe Duncan Phillips is planning to have the exhibition after your showing in Boston, is he not? There will then be time for another showing in the spring prior to ours.

I should be glad to hear from you about both this and the Nadelman exhibition at your earliest convenience. I think that the latter show is going to be a very startling one to the American public: there is no question about his being an artist of astonishing originality and quality.

Faithfully yours,

Dear Mr. Plaut:

At last, having concluded the pressure of preparing the Museum's annual budget, I have been able to get to the Kokoschka estimates which are enclosed.

Some of the figures, of course, are plain guess-work while others are based on current rates. The insurance rate while the pictures are in America is calculated at our rate, which is very inexpensive. This is due to the fact that because of our good record of handling whereby we have over the years accummulated a large insurance credit. We could, of course, if you desired, insure this exhibition under our policy even though you assemble it and have it first.

We have used the figure of $1,540 in our budget; adding of course our installation cost. Therefore, if you see anything radically wrong with these figures, please let us know at once so we can take steps to correct the budget.

Thanks greatly for your help.

Dear Mr. Plaut:

We are about to prepare our budgets for the next fiscal year beginning July 1, and it will, of course, be necessary to include a sum for the Kokoschka Exhibition. I will be very glad to aid in preparing a detailed budget for the exhibition if you will be so good as to estimate the following information for us:

1. Content of exhibition:

   Number of pictures in the exhibition broken down as follows:

   a. Number from each country.
   b. Estimated average value of each picture.
   c. Estimated average size of each picture. (We will be glad to tell you which shipping lines from various countries ship pictures based on measure rather than value.)

2. Duration of exhibition:

   If we may have the dates of your exhibition, we will make adequate allowance for assembly time, shipping to New York, etc., in order to calculate the insurance.

3. Framing:

   Do you think it is likely there will need to be much re-framing? If you are unfamiliar with the condition of the pictures which are likely to be borrowed, I presume we should allow a few hundred dollars for possible re-framing.

4. Returns:

   I presume we should plan to return the exhibition to the owners from New York.

If you have any extraordinary costs in mind in connection with this exhibition, I will, of course, wish to have them in preparing an estimate. I believe we can prepare a fairly accurate estimate based on a certain

1) We will produce in Europe the museum catalog for this exhibition, the style of the publication to be similar to those of the Institute of Contemporary Art in Boston. The book will contain the following:

a) A text part to be written by you.
b) Catalog of the Exhibition
c) Eight Color Plates
d) Fifty Six black and white illustrations
e) Some line drawings reproduced in the text part.

c) It will be bound in cloth.
d) It will have a jacket.

Thank you for your letter. I was not aware that the kodachromes of your two Kokoschkas went off to London without your o.k. I shall certainly make sure that you see engravers' proofs of the color plates to be used in the book and that they meet with your approval before the order is given to the printer.

Thank you very much for calling this matter to my attention.

Dear Jim:

I have just learned that Mr. Stein of the Chanticleer Press whose photographer we had make kodachromes of our two Kokoschkas has sent them to London without showing them to me. He said that he did this upon the assurance of the photographer that the kodachromes were fairly accurate.

I am somewhat apprehensive about their going ahead with the plates without our having seen the kodachromes but I presume that you arranged to see engravers' proofs of the color plates to be used in the book and I would like to insist upon our seeing the engravers' proofs at the same time. Since you are in charge of the book, I think it would be better if I do not deal directly with the publishers in this matter and left it in your hands.

Dear Monroe:

I am sorry to have had to delay so long in replying to your letter of December 11th relative to the Kokoschka exhibition. It is very hard to form a real estimate of the all-over cost of the exhibition - I am sure you have suffered this dilemma in almost every case, as I do. To be on the safe side, I would like to commit the Museum of Modern Art, Duncan Phillips, the Institute of Modern Art and the Art Institute of Chicago (if they are going to collaborate with us, which I think they are) to a tentative outlay of $2500 per institution. I am confident that we can remain within this figure but I should like to feel safe in proceeding with the assurance that we can do a top level job.

As to other collaborators, I don't think we can plan on having more than four institutions in the project. Perry Rathbone is much interested for St. Louis and, should Dan Rich not want to come in, I should be inclined to give the show to St. Louis rather than Milwaukee. Don't you agree?

Everything is going exceedingly well: I have just had a long letter from Kokoschka himself, who promises us every cooperation and will take a large share of the responsibility on his own shoulders for the European loans. The question of date remains the only doubtful matter. My inclination is to postpone the show definitely until October 1, 1948 and to have it open here at that time to run for about six weeks. It would be available immediately thereafter, either to you or to Duncan Phillips, and I would be inclined to leave the matter of schedule up to the two of you to be settled to your mutual satisfaction. The fourth, or mid-western showing, would take place after the Boston, New York and Washington exhibitions.

I shall be in New York on January 20, 21 and 22 and shall make it a point to come to see you at that time. In the meantime, a Happy New Year to you.

Ever sincerely,

Dear Jim:

I believe Jim Soby has told you that our Exhibitions Committee has approved in principle our collaboration with the Boston Institute of Modern Art on four exhibitions -- Kokoschka, Munch, Ensor and Klee -- and it was the feeling of the Committee that it would be desirable to have the three Expressionist shows - Kokoschka, Munch and Ensor -- a year apart. The Committee approved your direction of the Kokoschka exhibition and we could show it here next winter. Will you let me know whether this time seems feasible from your point of view?

As to the Klee exhibition, I wrote to Bürgi after Nierendorf's death and we may have word from him soon, although I rather doubt it. A few days before his death Nierendorf told me that the Klee exhibition as shown in Paris, Amsterdam, Brussels and Bern was due here in the summer of 1948 and could remain for a year or two.

I think the most important matter now is to settle the Kokoschka scheduling with the other museums concerned and I shall be glad to have word from you about this.

Mr. Monroe Wheeler,

New York 19, N.Y.

Dear Monroe:

In all the confusion of my commuting life, I can't seem to find the copy of my letter to Jim Plaut, though I'm sure it will turn up.

In brief I told him that our Museum had agreed in principle to do in conjunction with the Boston Institute four specific shows: Kokoschka, Munch, Ensor and Klee. I added that our Museum had approved Plaut as director of the Kokoschka show, and had left the question of directors for the remaining three exhibitions in abeyance. I added that we felt these four shows should be widely spaced - perhaps a year apart.

I made clear to Jim that I was simply giving him an informal report of the action taken at our Exhibitions Committee meeting, acting with Nelson Rockefeller's approval as a sort of liaison officer between the two Museums. I told him that to avoid all confusion and to keep our lines straight, all actual negociations and official announcements should come from the proper staff members of our respective museums - in this case, you and Plaut. So I do think he will expect a letter from you confirming the arrangements.

One final thing: I told Plaut that our Committee felt the arrangement with Boston should be confined to these four specific shows, for the time being anyway, and that we would feel free to make other arrangements with other shows, such as Italian Painting and Sculpture and Braque.

I've had a letter from Plaut in which he enthusiastically approves our Committee's action. He agrees to everything we suggest, and he is decidedly in favor of limiting the arrangement to the four exhibitions mentioned above.

Do please write him. It isn't that I'm not willing to carry on further negociations but that I think we'll get mixed up if two of us begin writing, etc.

Personally I think the two museums can do these four shows together very well.

Best to you,

Sincerely,

Jim

Dear Mr. Wheeler:

Enclosed I am sending you the finished Kokoschka catalog, which just came off the press. Mr. James Plaut, who has seen an advance copy, is quite enthusiastic about the quality of reproduction and I hope that you too will be pleased with the work we have done.

Due to the great speed with which the book had to be completed, we were faced with a number of extra charges which it is difficult to absorb in the price originally quoted. I have discussed this problem with Mr. Plaut and asked him if he would agree to a price adjustment to $1.25 per copy. Mr. Plaut accepted this adjustment for his own museum, but advised me, however, to communicate with you directly asking if such a price adjustment is acceptable to you. Because of the quality of the book, I hope that you will consent to this request.

The books are now en route to the States and as soon as they are received we shall ship you the 2000 copies you have ordered. I understand that the books should be invoiced to you directly and not through the Boston Institute of Contemporary Art.

Dear Dorothy:

We can plan to remove the Chicago Art Institute's Kokoschka landscape from the galleries the morning of Friday, September 23. If the shops are able to pack it that morning, it could go out the same afternoon.

Monawie has found that it was shipped in itw own box, which is now stored at the Lincoln Warehouse.

I expect that you will want to answer Miss Bush's letter of July 22 asking for shipping dates, so we will not write to Chicago from this department.

Attached is a copy of a letter received this morning from the Art Institute of Chicago.

The painting would have to be withdrawn early in order to reach Texas in time or perhaps the Art Institute would give an extension so that it could finish the show here. Do you want to write them or shall we withdraw it and ship it as requested?

Boy is at Lincoln Big Fannie says will take 4 days from here to Dallas.

A Kokoschka landscape View of Florence was shipped yesterday by the Minneapolis Museum to us.

This picture, owned by the Fiegl Gallery has been on approval at Minneapolis. Alfred has been anxious to submit it to the aqquisition committee, and before he left arranged with Dr. Fiegl to have Minneapolis ship the picture directly to us if they did not buy it.

We will probably hear from him about where and how the picture is to be hung.

Portrait of Cardinal Archbishop Elia Della Costa

"Cardinal Elia Della Costa, Archbishop of Florence, considered even by Communists in Italy as a Saint, nearly 80 years old, but alert like a child, frail of shape, but of an extraordinary intensity and will power over his body. He hardly feeds, sleeps not more than 2-3 hours, begins his religious meditations about 4 o'clock, his work as administrator of the Church at 7 o'clock, receives 500 people and more daily, has for each one a personal interest, thanks to his excellent memory, reads, hears normally without the help of gadgets. Refused to be elected as the Pope by the Holy Consistory. Is very strict on discipline and duties as far as his bishops and priests in Toscana are concerned, visits even, camouflaged as a civilian, during winter nights, the districts of the poorest people, in order to convince himself personally whether his priests and laymen are efficient in their work of bringing relief to the little ones and suffering ones.

"I personally had the thrilling experience to utter in his presence, all my sceptic and worldly opinions and had the satisfaction that I had been understood by a broadminded old man full of grace and dignity who forgave my shortcomings for the sake of Humanism and brotherly love."

September 26, 1949

Dear Friend:

In your letter of September 21st to Miss Alice Bacon, you requested us to postpone the disposition of your exhibition, including the works belonging to you, until you were able to talk the matter over with me. We have already issued the instructions for packing and returning all the works in the exhibition and have informed all of the private lenders and museums that their works were being sent to them immediately upon the close of the exhibition on October 4th. You will understand that we must fulfill our promise to them.

As to the works which belong to you, we would like to have instructions as to where to send them as quickly as possible because we shall have to pay storage to hold them for shipping instructions at W. S. Budworth Company, which is doing the packing.

Since a number of the works came to us as loans by the Kunsthaus in Zurich, Paul Cassirer (both in London and in Amsterdam), and Mr. Feilchenfeldt in Zurich, we are not sure whether these paintings belong to you or not. There is also the "Self-Portrait of a Degenerate Artist", which was lent by you with instructions to return it to Professor Korner in London. I attach hereto a list of these works lent by galleries, but which may belong to you. Will you please mark beside the title of each painting what disposition is to be made of it. All other works in the exhibition are from private lenders or museums.

Kindly return this slip to me with your instructions in the enclosed special delivery envelope, because any change in our shipping instructions to Budworth must be made this week.

I hope you are having an agreeable sojourn in Minneapolis, and I shall be very eager to see the portraits you are painting of Mr. and Mrs. Cowles.

With cordial greetings, I am

Dear Mr. Kokoschka:

Thank you very much for your undated letter which I received today.

We have come to an agreement with the Boston Institute of Modern Art and the Phillips Memorial Gallery in Washington to collaborate upon a joint exhibition of your work. We have agreed to place the direction of this exhibition in the hands of Mr. James S. Plaut and the Boston Institute of Modern Art, as the institution responsible for preparing the exhibition, will also issue a book to accompany it which will be used both by the Museum of Modern Art and the Phillips Memorial Gallery and by any other museums which will join in the project. The Art Institute of Chicago has not yet decided whether they can accommodate the exhibition, but I hope it will prove possible for them to do so.

I am transmitting your letter to Mr. Plaut at once because I know that he had planned to open the exhibition in Boston in October, 1948, so he may have to plan his exhibition without the pictures you want to send to Venice.

I am delighted that at last we have made a definite plan to show your work here. As you know, we have wanted to do so for a long time and I have no doubt that the exhibition will be immensely appreciated by our public.

With many thanks and kindest personal greetings, I am,

Dear Director Wheeler,

I thank you very much for your willingness to show my work in your museum. As you already might have heard from my very good friend Mr. Neurath, the Biennale in Venice invited me to participate with an important collection of my works, the other exhibition at the Biennale being Van Gogh. As my work has been banned for political reasons in Europe, I must accept this opportunity to satisfy the curiosity of the younger artists who ask me for spiritual guidance. Therefore I am asking you not to postpone my exhibition in New York later than March 49. I understand that about the exact date you will come to an agreement with Mr. Duncan Phillips.

I have heard from Mr. Plaut that he is writing the preface to the catalogue and I am most anxious that at least 8 coloured plates should be included, in the best technique available, as so far my work in the States had to be judged by black and white prints alone.

As I am getting so many letters from your country, especially from younger artists, I believe that there is a lively interest in the first representative exhibition of my work over there and that it would be of great value to have as many coloured reproductions as possible in the catalogue. Mr. Plaut will no doubt discuss these things with you and I hope that you will come to an agreement.

Dear Mr. Kokoschka,

I do regret extremely that I missed you in Switzerland but of course I saw the exhibition which impressed me immensely.

I shall do my best to try and arrange to come to see you in Lugano, but I have at the moment many commitments in Paris and I am not sure how much time they will consume. I have written to Duncan Phillips to tell him how fine the show is.

I think, however, that in an American exposition we will have to be much more highly selective becauseof the tremendous cost of moving pictures across Europe and the Atlantic these days. As a matter of fact all of our expositions now are limited to master works because we find that the effect upon the public, as an educational force, is much greater when we pursue this plan.

Thanking you again for your kind letter and I shall do my best to see you while I am here.

Mr. Wheeler has referred to me your letter generously offering the loan of your Kokoschka to the forthcoming exhibition of this artist's work at the Museum.

As you may know the exhibition was assembled by the Boston Institute of Contemporary Art. Unfortunately, due to circumstances beyond the Museum's control, we will not have sufficient exhibition space to hang all the works originally selected for the exhibition.

Under these circumstances I am sure that you will understand that we shall be unable to take advantage of your generous offer of the Amsterdam. We are, however, very glad to learn that this picture is in your collection and most grateful to you for offering it.

Dear Lucas:

I hope your Kokoschka exhibition will be a big success. There are some plans here and in Washington to give him a large retrospective exhibition during the coming season or the one following. Could you send me the catalogue of your exhibition by air mail as soon as possible, or a complete list indicating where I can find the paintings you are showing reproduced. If this can not be done, could you send photographs, which can be taken at my expense if necessary.

More soon.

Dear Mr. Wheeler:

I have your kind letter of April 18th in regard to the Kokoschka exhibition, and appreciate the various factors that you have had to contend with before being able to arrive at any plan of action.

Your museum is not alone in being faced with "budgetary conditions" which can cut into plans for carrying out even the best ideas. I know that a fair share of $5,000 is more than we can afford right now.

Whether anything I may do with Kokoschka in London would be of any help to you, is up to you to decide. I shall visit him and talk with him about his work, and get as much information on what he has done and where his work may be found, as possible. I shall try to see as many pictures and obtain as many photographs of his works as I can. I do not know whether I shall be able to make arrangements for bringing any of his works to this country. This would depend again upon those "budgetary conditions". In other words, my plans now for being able to do anything positive about the exhibition are pretty damned indefinite, and we have all but abandoned the idea of a Kokoschka show at this time.

For your own interest and information I am enclosing Kokoschka's letter and his own list of paintings in England.

Let us hope that a better time will come for a Kokoschka exhibition.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Director Cumming:

My friend Dr. H. Tietze sent me your letter March 7, 1946 referring to a proposed serious exhibition of my work at the Milwaukee Art Institute. I would be very much in favor of arranging and would be prepared to assist you in any way possible in order to make the show truly representative. I am enclosing a list of my works which to my knowledge are in England and which it would be possible for me to borrow for you if you would arrange the necessary transport facilities and insurance. Also there are a number of very important works in Switzerland, Zurich Museum, Basle Museum, Winterthur and in private collections. Also in Belgium and Holland and especially in Czechoslovakia from all these places and museums I am sure I would get them for you. Concerning Germany, where the greater part of my work was in the leading State-Museums, I am afraid it is only through your American Military Authorities that a survey could be made because at the moment I am not even permitted to write to that country. You can imagine that I am particularly interested in the fate and whereabouts of these works of mine which were the fruits of the work of the better part of my life. If there is anything you want me to do in this matter, please, let me know. It seems to me that the best idea would be to arrange a travelling exhibition in the States to make the trouble and expenses worthwhile. I assure you that

Dear Mr. Wheeler:

I have your letter of April 15th and appreciate that you have a problem in getting a director for the exhibition.

Since my letter of March 26th to you, I have received word from Kokoschka that he is very anxious to see the project carried through. He enclosed a fairly complete list of his works now located in England and suggested that there would be other material of his on the continent.

In less than a month I am leaving for England and I would appreciate hearing from you what progress you have been able to make with your own plans. I am pretty certain that we will want to bring some of his paintings over from England, and there is no reason why his works should not do double duty in case our exhibition is given independently of yours.

I shall be anxious to hear from you whatever and whenever you have developments to report. With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

MILWAUKEE

April 18, 1946

Dear Mr. Cumming:

At a meeting of our Exhibitions Committee yesterday a Kokoschka exhibition was approved in principle, subject to calendar and budget. We would not in any case be able to have the exhibition here before the spring of 1947 but, of course, at least that much time is necessary if a proper catalog is to be prepared. If the exhibition were done jointly we would not, however, object to your showing the exhibition before we had it here. Our Trustees stipulated that the contents of the exhibition as shown here would have to be subject to the approval of the director of our Department of Painting and Sculpture.

The budgetary condition is an important one for us these days. It has just cost us $3,800 to bring seventeen Chagall paintings from European countries due to the fact that the shipping companies now base the freight rate on the owner's valuation of the picture instead of upon the weight of the box. The Kokoschka show, in order to be definitive, should also have at least as many works from European countries, in addition to those he would send us from England. I do not know how much you can afford for the exhibition but I estimate that it would cost at least $5,000 to assemble and it might be less expensive for us both if we could get a third museum to share the cost. I would like to have your own ideas about cost at your convenience.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Cumming:

Dr. Hans Tietze recently telephoned me to say that you were planning to arrange an exhibition of Kokoschka. I was very happy to receive soon afterward you letter on the same subject. We have long wanted to have a Kokoschka exhibition and I am sure that we should welcome the collaboration of another museum. Perhaps if we could get still another to join us it would further reduce the cost.

Our problem is to get a director for the exhibition, since our Trustees do not permit the showing here of an exhibition not selected by our staff or by a director appointed by our staff. I am bringing this matter before our Exhibitions Committee, which meets this week, and I shall communicate with you directly thereafter. Our schedule for the coming year is very full, and an even more serious problem is fitting the book into our publications program, which has a terrible backlog of uncompleted books. But I hope something can be arranged if you are not in too much of a hurry.

With many thanks for letting us know of your Kokoschka plans, I am

Dear Mr. Wheeler:

Word has just reached me from Dr. Hans Tietze, with whom I have recently been corresponding on the subject of a Kokoschka Show, that you are planning to do an exhibition of his works at the Museum of Modern Art in 1947.

There is no doubt but that with your resources and staff the subject would get a most comprehensive handling, and artist and public alike would both receive the maximum benefit. And since we had also planned to circulate the exhibition, this aspect would also receive a much fuller treatment at your hands. Therefore, I am writing to ask whether or not your plans are settled and, if so, how far along they have gotten? When, for example, in 1947 had you planned to open in New York City?

One way or another, that is either as a participating museum in your plans for circulation or independently, we are most anxious to bring the work of this fine artist in a comprehensive way before the Milwaukee public.

It looks fairly certain that I shall be in London during the latter part of this May and most definitely intend to see Kokoschka at that time. I would appreciate hearing from you how best we might be able to combine efforts or any other thoughts you might have on this subject. My problem is that of a recently returned ex-serviceman who is trying to rekindle a fire in a fairly large community for a really first rate museum program, where the fire has very nearly gone out for a variety of reasons. I had originally conceived the idea of a Kokoschka Show not only for its local value, but because I felt that if decently done it could be made to circulate and thus bring pleasure and prestige to everyone including the Milwaukee Art Institute. Although this is by no means the only idea in the world for an exhibition, it had already caught on well with some of the people who are supporters and might become even more so because of an interest in an exhibition of this kind.

Hans Tietze has been asked by the Milwaukee Art Institute to advise them on a Kokoschka exhibition. Inasmuch as he wants to get from abroad important works which have not been shown here before, he would like to know whether the Museum would like to have such an exhibition, first. He is in communication with Kokoschka himself about the exhibition and will have his cooperation. He wants to know whether we would be interested in collaborating, may I have your opinion?

Dear Mr. Pearlman:

Mr. Monroe Wheeler has asked me to send you our Registrar's estimate of the probable cost of bringing the three Kokoschka pictures over from Zürich.

You will notice that there are two alternative rates: one which applies if it is definitely known that the pictures are not for sale, but for exhibition only, in which case an affidavit to that effect must be given. The other rate applies if one or more of the pictures may be sold here. If the pictures may remain in this country, it would be cheaper to bring them over by air freight, at an estimated cost of $242.50 plus insurance, packing and clearance charges.

I have showed Mr. Wheeler Oskar Kokoschka's comments on Cardinal Archbishop Elia Della Costa, the Archbishop of Florence, who is the subject of one of the paintings. We are very glad to have this information and are grateful to you for sending it on to us.

If you will write to the artist and take the lead in developing the plan we will be most grateful and please keep us informed as the project progresses. With our limited capacity for exhibition space we might not be able to show as much as could be included in your great museum.

Mrs. Phillips at the time expressed great interest in the possibility that we might hold a Kokoschka exhibition in the Museum of Modern Art, and Mr. Phillips at the time said he would write me further regarding what he might be able to do in the way of sharing costs.

Attach.-Letr. 5/21/46.

to include Kokoschka in your schedule for the Museum of Modern Art I concurred immediately in the idea of our getting together to share the expenses equally and to confer on details. If you will write to the artist and take the lead in developing the plan we will be most grateful and please keep us informed as the project progresses. With our limited capacity for exhibition space we might not be able to show as much as could be included in your great museum.

Again let me thank you for your generous loans to our Henry Moore exhibition. The finest pictures were the ones loaned by you personally and by the Museum of Modern Art. I am so happy that you enjoyed your visit to the Collection and that you think so highly of our new Mondrian. With our warmest regards to you and your wife,

Sincerely yours,

Dear James Sweeney:

It was a great joy to us to know you and Mrs. Sweeney better during your recent visit to Washington, and it was a treat to show you both the Collection Sunday morning and to have you with us at two parties in our house.

In regard to our talk about collaborating for a Kokoschka exhibition next season, I am glad to confirm in writing how eagerly we will join you in working out the plans. We had long wanted such a show and when Marjorie spoke to me of your intention to include Kokoschka in your schedule for the Museum of Modern Art I concurred immediately in the idea of our getting together to share the expenses equally and to confer on details. If you will write to the artist and take the lead in developing the plan we will be most grateful and please keep us informed as the project progresses. Dear Mr. Phillips,

Mrs. Sweeney and I both look back on our luncheon and dinner with you and Mrs. Phillips and our visit to the gallery as the most pleasant recollection of the Washington trip. Tim Clapp, Laura and I were talking it over last evening. I hope Mrs. Phillips and you may get up this way before the summer sends Laura to the cape, and Maude and Tim to Maine. In any case, whenever you do manage it I hope you will call me as I expect to be in town most of the summer.

I was very happy to learn of your interest in a Kokoschka show and your generous proposal to share expenses and arrangements for one if we see it can be practically arranged. As I mentioned to Mrs. Phillips and I believe to you, the Museum Exhibitions Committee has approved such an exhibition, but it has not yet been set in the schedule, as the present shipping and insurance costs make transportation from Europe prohibitive, and in my opinion the justification for such an exhibition would be the introduction of the American public to as large as possible a carefully selected group of Kokoschka's unfamiliar work from European collections.

I have told Mr. Wheeler, Director of Exhibitions, of your interest in Kokoschka, and will bring your letter to his attention. It is possible that we may find a way to solve the problem of insurance and shipping costs earlier than we had expected. Meanwhile I will get what further data I can regarding available pictures in European collections from Kokosck other sources, and will keep plans.

Let me thank you again for your many kindnesses to Laura and to me in Washington, and our warmest regards to you and Mrs. Phillips.

Sincerely,

Mr. Duncan Phillips

Dear Mr. Phillips:

Your letter arrived just after I telephoned you yesterday. I am delighted to learn that you are willing to join us and the Cleveland Museum of Art in the sponsorship of the Bonnard exhibition provided that the Museum of Modern Art will share with you the cost of bringing a retrospective Kokoschka exhibition to this country the following year. The dates for the Bonnard exhibition will be as follows:

Museum of Modern Art, New York	December 9, 1947 to February 22,1948
Cleveland Museum of Art	March 4 to April 17, 1948
Phillips Memorial Gallery,	May to ?

I am leaving for France tomorrow and I shall try to get to the Kokoschka exhibition in Basel before it closes, and report to you about the availability of loans.

Will you let me know when in the season of 1948 to 1949 it would suit you to have the Kokoschka exhibition, since it would be entirely agreeable to us for the initial showing to take place in Washington. I shall, of course, communicate with Kokoschka and explain to him that a postponement is desirable in order that our schedule may be accommodated as well as yours. Some time ago Mr. Burton Cumming of the Milwaukee Art Institute approached us about a Kokoschka exhibition and if he can afford it, and the loans are available for a sufficient period, we might let him join us in order to reduce our costs, if you have no objection.

I have just received a letter from the French Embassy saying that the French Government will officially sponsor the Bonnard exhibition and this should assist us in obtaining the desired loans from French state museums.

With kindest regards, I am

Dear Mr. Rabinavicius:

Mr. Wheeler has referred to me your letter generously offering the loan of your Kokoschka watercolor to the forthcoming exhibition of this artist's work at the Museum.

As you may know the exhibition was assembled by the Boston Institute of Contemporary Art. Unfortunately, due to circumstances beyond the Museum's control, we will not have sufficient exhibition space to hang all the works originally selected for the exhibition.

Under these circumstances I am sure that you will understand that we shall be unable to take advantage of your generous offer of Das Madchen. We are, however very glad to learn of your collection and most grateful to you for offering to lend from it to future exhibitions.

Dear Sirs, (re Museum Number 49.1761)

I received your notification in regard to the consignment of the painting by Oskar Kokoschka,Dolcebridge,which went by the SS. Manipur ,and I received at the same time a letter from Messrs.Fenton & Cp.,of Davies Street,London,who are instructed by you to deliver the picture at my house.

When I went to see the Fentons yesterday,in order to sign the necessary Forms for the Import,I was informed that I would have to pay the charges for clearance and delivery which would amount to roughly £ 9 - 10,or,in case the delivery would be delayed by a delayed arrival of the Import Licence,about £ 3.10 for each following week,on top of the 9-10 pounds.

I should like to make it very clear that I cannot possibly pay anything in connection with this matter.I had no interest in exhibiting the painting which does not belong to me,and I did not even think it a particularly necessary feature of the exhibition.It was Mr.Plaut,of the Boston Museum ,who made a point of showing this picture ,and Mr.Neurath,then of Adprint,London, who had already prepared the Kok oschka Catalogue,including the picture in question ,who specially asked me to lend the picture to the various One Man shows of Mr.Kokoschka's work in the United States.

Please let me know how I shall go on dealing in this matter.All the owners of Kokoschka pictures in this country,as well as the persons who have held Kokoschka pictures here for safe keeping,as it was the case with the "Dolcebridge",have only been persuaded with great difficulty to part with the pictures for such a long period,and they all consented only under the certain assumption that they would incur at least no expenses whatever in connection with their loans .

Yours sincerely

Mrs. Emmy Rubensohn has told us that you would like to arrange a little recital the evening of the opening of the Kokoschka exhibition which the Museum of Modern Art is going to hold next summer.

I want you to know that I am very sympathetic to this proposal and I hope very much that it can take place. Since we would be unable to charge an extra admission for this recital on the night of the opening, we would not have any funds available to pay musicians, but if you think it can be arranged without cost to us, I shall be happy to discuss the matter with you.

I am leaving today for Europe but I shall be back early in April and perhaps you will be good enough to get in touch with me then. Meanwhile, I am returning to Mrs. Rubensohn the score of the music which she left with me.

Dear Sir,

Without regard to our general discussions on the occasion of your visit to the "Mustermesse" we would like to inform you briefly that the negotiations concerning Kokoschka publications are now beginning to take shape, especially with Dr. Oprecht of "Europa Verlag", and considering the great interest you showed on Kokoschka's behalf, we wish to call your attention to the fact that it would no doubt be of interest for you to meet Kokoschka now in Switzerland.

Kokoschka has been invited these days by Dr. Reinhart, Winterthur, so that he will probably stay with the latter in Sierre during next month.

We do not know, of course, how far the connexions have already grown between you, Kokoschka and the gentlemen interested in publications, but we think we ought to inform you about what we know, and in case you are coming back to Switzerland we would be very grateful if you would kindly let us know this, too, so that we may be able to show you some copies of the colour photographs we have already made of Kokoschka's paintings.

In the meantime we remain

Dear Mr. Wheeler:

Last time you had been in our Galleries in the company of Mr. Somerset Maugham, I promised to send you a photograph of the Kokoschka painting we had acquired recently. I herewith take the liberty of enclosing it. (+)

In addition to this, I would like you to know that we have a very fine painting by Van Gogh. I think, Mr. Maugham might be interested in it because the painting has a fine quality, it is not too large, and the price is convenient, too. The painting, -- "Peasant Woman Digging Before Her Cottage, -- was formerly in the C. Mouwen Jr. Collection in Breda. It is published in De La Faille's Van Gogh on Page 157; there, you will find further details on it.

I would so much appreciate if you let me know whether you think this is a suitable painting for Mr. Maugham.

As I mentioned to Mrs. Phillips and I believe to you, the Museum Exhibitions Committee has approved such an exhibition, but it has not yet been set in the schedule, as the present shipping and insurance costs make transportation from Europe prohibitive, and in my opinion the justification for such an exhibition would be the introduction of the American public to as large as possible a carefully selected group of Kokoschka's unfamiliar work from European collections.

Dear Mr. Phillips,

Mrs. Sweeney and I both look back on our luncheon and dinner with you and Mrs. Phillips and our visit to the gallery as the most pleasant recollection of the Washington trip. Tim Clapp, Laura and I were talking it over last evening. I hope Mrs. Phillips and you may get up this way before the summer sends Laura to the cape, and Maude and Tim to Maine. In any case, whenever you do manage it I hope you will call me as I expect to be in town most of the summer.

I was very happy to learn of your interest in a Kokoschka show and your generous proposal to share expenses and arrangements for one if we see it can be practically arranged. As I mentioned to Mrs. Phillips and I believe to you, the Museum Exhibitions Committee has approved such an exhibition, but it has not yet been set in the schedule, as the present shipping and insurance costs make transportation from Europe prohibitive, and in my opinion the justification for such an exhibition would be the introduction of the American public to as large as possible a carefully selected group of Kokoschka's unfamiliar work from European collections.

Mr. James Johnson Sweeney,

Dear James Sweeney:

It was a great joy to us to know you and Mrs. Sweeney better during your recent visit to Washington, and it was a treat to show you both the Collection Sunday morning and to have you with us at two parties in our house.

In regard to our talk about collaborating for a Kokoschka exhibition next season, I am glad to confirm in writing how eagerly we will join you in working out the plans. We had long wanted such a show and when Marjorie spoke to me of your intention to include Kokoschka in your schedule for the Museum of Modern Art I concurred immediately in the idea of our getting together to share the expenses equally and to confer on details. If you will write to the artist and take the lead in developing the plan we will be most grateful and please keep us informed as the project progresses. With our limited capacity for exhibition space we might not be able to show as much as could be included in your great museum.

Again let me thank you for your generous loans to our Henry Moore exhibition. The finest pictures were the ones loaned by you personally and by the Museum of Modern Art. I am so happy that you enjoyed your visit to the Collection and that you think so highly of our new Mondrian. With our warmest regards to you and your wife,

Sincerely yours,

Enclosed please find two copies of the detailed list of the Kokoschka exhibition, with notes on its condition when received by us from San Francisco. After you have had a chance to check the exhibit, will you sign the original and return it to me? When you mail back the check list, will you also be good enough to acknowledge the receipt of the unframed material we sent to you on June 10th, the listing of which was in my letter to you of that same date? This acknowledgement with the check list of what we are sending by truck on July 5th will account for the entire exhibit.

I also enclose a summary of what is going by truck. I will give the truck driver a copy of this to be signed by the Museum of Modern Art, and brought back to me.

I will send you a telegram on Tuesday after the truck has left, telling you the exact time of its departure. I hope it reaches the museum in good time. Thank you for your note about the shipping entrance.

Sincerely yours,

Our trucking people have asked me to find out where the shipping entrance for the museum is located. Is it on 53rd Street or in the rear from 54th? If they have explicit directions in advance how to approach the museum it may save a great deal of time.

Dear Miss Marston:

Will you be kind enough to send our insurance brokers, Dunn & Fowler, 70 Pine Street, New York 5, a photostatic copy of Railway Express receipt No.38-072 covering the Kokoschka sculpture shipped to us last May. As you know, it arrived here on May 23rd badly damaged and was repaired before our exhibition opened.

The loans to the Kokoschka exhibition have now all been returned with the exception of the Swiss shipment which will leave in a few days. Mr.Kokoschka and Dr. Feilchenfeld instructed us to send What we are Fighting for and Cathleen, Countess of Drogheda to the Buchholz Gallery instead of returning them to Switzerland.

We shall appreciate it if you can send the Express receipt to our insurance brokers as soon as possible so that they will be able to make a claim against the Railway Express Agency.

Dear Miss Rex:

I have your unanswered letter of October 4th and your card. To deal with the card first: we have received from Wilmington 6 of the 8 traveling boxes. The two boxes which you have received now become 19 (4) and 8 (2), as you indicate. These boxes were built up to hold more paintings than originally encased. You will see by the list for RETURNS sent to Miss Dudley, that in Box 19 go the following four paintings, to the Kunstmuseum, Basle:

The Tempest '17	Hugo Caro '17
Portrait of Blumner	Herwarth Walden

The two paintings that came in Box 8 were Lyon and The Deer. Lyon has been purchased by the Phillips Gallery in Washington and is, of course, to be returned there. The Deer is owned by Mrs. Katzenellenbogen and she has instructed us to send it to the Kleeman Galleries. No doubt Box 8 can be used for some other painting.

The two paintings we had framed before the show toured, Exodus, Col de Sfa and Landscape, Hungary, seem to be a problem. As to the Exodus, that frame was damaged on arrival here and again when it was shipped to your museum. Miss Dudley had it repaired and I judge that the Exodus was hung for your showing in its own frame. In fact, I remember seeing it when I was down in August. That frame was ornate but we just put a simple wooden one on it for the tour. It must be there somewhere. The same is true of Landscape, Hungary. I don't know how it could have an ornate frame on it now, since we had a narrow wooden one put on that too.

The two frames for these have finally turned up!

October 21st will be plenty of time for us to receive the travelling frames. November 1st would be about the latest convenient date. Let me know if any other problems arise. I may possibly be down on October 22nd and if I could be of help I can try to get down early in the p.m. of the 21st (Friday).

Sincerely,

Natalie Marston

Dear Miss Marston:

Thank you for the return lists of the Kokoschka graphic art. When Miss Rex returns from her vacation next week I will ask her to check it with the prints in the exhibition and in our storeroom.

We may have some questions to ask you and will write again. I hope we will be able to identify all of the graphic work so that it will not be necessary for you to make a trip to New York.

The drawing "Head of a Girl" was attributed to the M. H. De Young Memorial Museum because of a sticker on the back and because the photograph is credited to that museum. We are changing the label to read "Private Collection" but will return the drawing to the St. Etienne Gallery unless we are notified to the contrary.

We have written to the director of the Austrian State Picture Gallery asking for his recommendations as to the best way of returning the Viennese loans.

I note that Mrs. Mack wishes to purchase the Montana landscape lent by the Kunsthaus, Zurich. Shall we return this with the rest of the Swiss loans unless we hear from you that it has been purchased? We should hear from you about returning this painting as well as the paintings belonging to Mrs. Mack and Mrs. Katzenellenbogan before the close of the exhibition (October 4) so that our packing and shipping lists may be prepared.

Dear Miss Marston:

Thank you for the revised lists for the Kokoschka exhibition. These lists, as well as the list for the graphic material, will be very helpful when we arrange to return the exhibition to London. I hope you will hear from Mrs. Mack and Mrs. Katzenellenbogan soon. If Mrs. Katzenellenbogan's painting is not returned to her in Los Angeles should it be sent to Paul Cassirir & Co. in Amsterdam?

We are in touch with Miss Bonestell and can arrange to return her sculpture as soon as the exhibition closes. She is very much pleased with the repairs.

We will make all arrangements for returning the New York loans either by Berkeley Express or by our regular trucking company and will forward the rest of the American loans by Railway Express prepaid.

We are planning to return the foreign shipments by boat unless we hear from you to the contrary. Will you please let me know if any foreign shipments were entered under bond. (I think I asked you this when you were here and you said none were under bond.)

I assume that all foreign shipments should be consigned to the agents who forwarded them to you. The Swiss and Dutch loans which were shipped from Venice will be consigned to the agent who forwarded the other loans from Switzerland and Holland. All of the Austrian loans were shipped to you from Venice so that we have no Austrian agent listed. Do you have any special instructions about their return to Vienna?

The values on the return shipping papers should agree with those on the consular invoices sent to you with the foreign shipments. Will you please check and let me know if they are the same as the values on our lists.

Your frames will be returned to you together with the travelling boxes by Railway Express.

Dear Miss Dudley:

I have now heard from practically all of the lenders to the Kokoschka exhibition to whom I sent forms ascertaining the return of their paintings. There are a few changes from the list I sent you many moons ago and I am enclosing a revised list for all the paintings. All the starred works are framed in frames belonging to us and we would, of course, appreciate having these returned to us anytime. I still haven't heard from Mrs. Mack of San Francisco or Mrs. Katzenellenbogan in regard to their wishes in returning the Girl with Flowers and Birdcage (28) and Aigues Mortes (33), and The Deer (41), but I will let you know as soon as I do.

As I know I've told you, we have been very fairly and cooperatively treated by the Berkeley Express & Moving Company as far as New York City deliveries by truck goes. I have listed the City loans separately with telephone numbers since all of the lenders must be called and Berkeley will do this, or have in the past. Do you want me to arrange with them or would you prefer to do it, or do you think your own trucking arrangements would be better?

Miss Bonestell doesn't seem to be in the new telephone book and I don't know how we can get the sculpture back to her. I was delighted to see it included in your showing and thought it had been very well restored considering its condition.

I will send the list for the graphic material returns at the beginning of next week. Sorry not to include it now but I want to get this much off to you before going off for the weekend.

If the graphic work is confused and I could be of more help than hindrance, let me know and I'll arrange to come down for a day.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely,

Natalie Marston

Dear Mr. Wheeler:

Another incident in connection with the Kokoschka exhibition. The show came east from San Francisco without one of the paintings, "Paris, The Opera". Miss Moore in Wilmington was somewhat disconcerted to discover this, and I took it up rather warmly with the De Young Memorial Museum.

The painting had been purchased locally by a Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Lilienthal, Jr. They are more than willing to send the painting on, and I understand that this was planned. Due to pressure of events at the museum, as it was explained to me, the painting lingered behind, and there seems to have been the feeling that the show was pretty impressive, that the distance was long and that the presence of this one canvas could very well be overlooked.

As things are now, they stand ready to ship this painting to New York for your exhibition if we request them to do so. We can have our pound of flesh since it is in the bond.

How do you feel about this? There is no question to my mind but what the painting should have stayed with the exhibition. On the other hand considering the distance, I hate to insist.

Dear Miss Dudley:

Marion — Apr 15

At last I have created the lists and labels which I promised. I have done everything by catalogue number and have divided the list into three groups as I have done for my purposes right along, i.e. European, New York City and the rest of the U.S. There are five European-owned paintings whose destination at the end of the show is undetermined. Later on I will get this information to you.

We used the Berkeley Express & Moving Company to round up the New York loans. They are very reasonable and handle all our business there for us, calling the owners first, etc. The second page of New York returns lists the graphic work and drawings. This is confusing inasmuch as we only had a small portion framed for our showing and sent the rest of it on to Washington as it came to us, in packages. By the time the show gets to New York, there may be a lot more framed and this list will be out of date. However, each drawing is identified and between us we can straighten it out come September 1949.

After the list of lenders, I have clipped a copy of an insurance cancellation slip on the Knight Errant which is not touring. Portrait of an Art Collector, #62, is being returned to the owner, Mr. Henry Pearlman, 101 Park Avenue, during the mid-western showings, but he will be glad to lend it to your Museum for your showing if you will contact him later on. I was hoping to be able to cancel that insurance at the same time, but I haven't heard that he has received it from Washington to date. The self portrait clay sculpture #63, belonging to Blanche Ronestell, is far too fragile to send on tour. We have been waiting to hear from her for days as to how she would like it returned to her, and where. — ins. canc 2/6

I trust this does it. If there is anything further, let me know. With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

Natalie Marston

I apologize profusely for the delayed enclosures. I have had the shipping list (a duplicate of the check list I sent on to Miss Bier at the Phillips Gallery in November) ready to send you for days but have not had time to create the overseas one. On top of all this, I have been in bed since yours of December 14th arrived. I do hope I haven't caused inordinate inconvenience.

re about new frames

As to the damage to the "Exodus" frame, I believe that I sent you a copy of the damage report I sent to Dunn & Fowler on September 29th. Will it be possible to have this frame repaired while the show is touring so that when it is returned to Mrs. Warburg, it will be in good condition? She was here when our showing opened and we called her attention to the first damage about which she was not too happy, but we reassured her, etc. We urgently requested that all the European works come unframed, but unfortunately that was not the case. There is still one more frame to be sent down to you from here and that will be the end of 'frames and empty cases'.

I hope you will forgive me if I delay a few days before sending you a typed list of which paintings belong in which wooden cases. I have it jotted down in rough form but I would like to type it up as well as make labels for each box, listing the paintings which go in, to make it as easy for your packing department as possible. And that I can't face today.

I am not happy about sending you the Shipping Order list as the list for values and since I have lists here in three categories: New York loans, Overseas loans, U. S. loans, I will send them on to you at the same time. In the meantime, this other list does contain the information you need. You will hear from me soon. Meanwhile,

All best wishes for the various holidays,

Sincerely yours,

Nathaniel Mourton

Dear Miss Marston:

We have received 4 frames and 18 boxes for the Kokoschka exhibition. The frames for "Exodus" and "Lyon" were damaged in transit. We will need to have the insurance valuations for these paintings when we report the frame damages to the insurance company. Will you be able to send us the complete list with insurance valuations soon? If not will you please write me the valuations for these two paintings as soon as possible.

It would help us in packing the loans for return if you could send us a list showing the boxes to be used for each painting. The boxes we have received are marked as follows:

BX - 9 - 2	BX - 20 - 1

Dear Mr. McCray:

In Mr. Plaut's absence from town I am taking the liberty of acknowledging your recent letter to him. In regard to the shipping of the Nadelman show, we will have our trucking firm estimate the handling of the return trip to New York when it arrives and inform you of the outcome. They are both reasonable and reliable.

In the meantime, we have taken the liberty of shipping fifteen empty cases for the Kokoschka paintings to the Museum of Modern Art as well as three cases containing four very fragile frames which we necessarily removed before shipping the show to Washington. There is one more frame to be shipped to you and that will be the end. I will send in a few days a complete list for checking purposes. I am sorry I have not had time to get it in order to enclose it now.

Attention: Miss Jane Hesener

Dear Miss Hesener:

In accordance with instructions from Miss Dudley and Miss Ulrich of the Museum of Modern Art, I am writing to give you as much data as possible for insurance to be placed on some of the European-owned works of Oskar Kokoschka which are to be included in the large, retrospective exhibition to be held in this country in New York, Washington, St. Louis and San Francisco, after the initial showing in Boston. I am enclosing a complete list of the works to come from Europe, listing (where possible) the value, the port of embarkation, the method of transportation and the date of departure. As more information comes in, I will send it on to you, and, as I understand it, we will send you a statement on September first and each succeeding month giving the exact status of the loans.

Venice
SS Exchester

There are two shipments at present on the sea, as you will see from the list. Will you kindly place insurance to cover the six paintings coming from Venice via the SS Exchester totaling $26,925. This shipment was due to leave Venice on August 12th; American Export lines is still unable to give us details as to the date and port of arrival.

Rotterdam
SS Aardyk

The other shipment of the two Amsterdam paintings, left Rotterdam on the SS Aardyk on August 18th, due in New York on August 27th and Boston the 29th. Will you kindly place $10,000 insurance for this shipment.

The next painting on the list Self Portrait of a Degenerate Artist is due to leave Amsterdam by air sometime in the next week according to a recent cable. I have been given no value for this work as yet but will send it on to you as soon as possible. The next nine paintings listed on the first page are all presumably coming from Switzerland by air but we are awaiting further word on them. The four paintings listed on page two are even more uncertain, since they may not all be coming, but I thought it best to include them in the hopes that they do come through.

Will you kindly place insurance to cover these so that I may cancel it with our company here.

I am sending a copy of this letter and the enclosed list to Miss Dudley at the Museum. If there is any question on this material please do not hesitate to communicate with me.

Attention: Mr. Budworth

Dear Mr. Budworth:

On Tuesday you collected 2 boxes from this museum with the Kokoschka paintings. The boxes were BX-4 and BX-5. On the foreign shipment list sent to you BX-5 is the same as Box 19 which is to be marked MOMA 3 ZURICH and is to contain the following 3 paintings:

49.1763 Hugo Caro
49.1751 The Tempest
49.1756 Cathleen, Countess of Drogheda

You have been asked to hold this box along with Box c (W.F.7) until we can give you further details.

The other box, BX-4 is an extra box which you may use as you like.

Box 1 of the United States loans also becomes an extra box since Hahn Brothers collected the painting it was to contain (49.1782 Tower Bridge) from you on Tuesday, October 11th, and they delivered the painting to Mr. von Sternberg.

You did not receive from us the painting 49.1760 Lyon which we are holding here for repairs. This means that Box 12 contains 2 paintings (49.1784 Frau Lotte Franzos and 49.1785 Courmayeur et Les Dents des Geants) which are going to the Phillips Memorial Gallery.

This letter is to confirm our telephone conversations with your office.

Very sincerely yours,

Registrar

Dear Miss Dudley:-

Your letter of the 22nd addressed to Mr. Budworth duly received, and instructions pertaining to the 31 paintings by Kokoschka have been fully read and are understood by the writer.

We agree to collect the 31 pictures from your Museum and repack in boxes to be delivered to us, to be returned to the owners in the United States and abroad, the cost not to exceed $175.00, exclusive of any insurance or expressage, and it will probably cover supplying one box for the painting entitled "Lyon" (49.1760), unless this picture is very large.

Pick up ... noted

In due time, kindly advise the exact date that the paintings will be available, which we understand will be shortly after October 3rd, and we would ask that you notify your warehouse to deliver to us the 19 boxes a day in advance of the date that we collect the pictures.

We will remake Box No. 12 to contain three paintings instead of two, or else make a new box for the painting entitled "Lyon" (49.1760).

We will follow your return shipping instructions and will send the shipment forward by Railway Express prepaid with a declared value of $550. on each box.

We will arrange the foreign shipments in accordance with your instructions, noting that W.J. Byrnes & Co. will take care of the shipments, and as requested, we will pack the foreign shipments first and send on to you the gross weights, and measurements, etc.

We would suggest that you allow us ten days from the time of actual collection to have the foreign shipments prepared. We doubt if it will take this long, but we would rather play safe.

I am enclosing a copy of the letter from Dr. Karl Garzarolli, Director of the Österreichischen Galerie, Vienna, in reference to the paintings which you borrowed for the Kokoschka exhibition. You will note that Dr. Garzarolli writes that the paintings arrived in Vienna safely but that two of them, "Still Life with Tortoise and Hyacinth" and "Portrait of Dr. Szeps," have been varnished. He is asking who authorized the varnishing.

We have written Dr. Garzarolli that these paintings were varnished before they were received by us and that we are referring his letter to you. A copy of our letter is enclosed.

Very sincerely yours,

Registrar

Dear Dr. Garzarolli:

Thank you for your letter of December 23 with the receipt for the three Kokoschka paintings which we shipped to you last October. We are pleased to learn that they arrived in Vienna safely but are very sorry to hear that the "Still Life with Tortoise and Hyacinth" and "Portrait of Dr. Szeps" may have been varnished without your authorization.

Since these paintings were varnished before they were forwarded to the Museum of Modern Art we are referring your letter to Mr. James S. Plaut, Institute of Contemporary Art, Boston. As you know, Mr. Plaut organized the exhibition, which was shown first in Boston and then in several other museums in the United States.

We hope that you will hear from Mr. Plaut in the near future.

Very sincerely yours,

Registrar

Sehr geehrte Herren!

Beiliegend übersenden wir Ihnen die Rückbestätigung für die drei entlehtnen Werke von Oskar KOKOSCHKA, die gestern in unserer Galerie eingetroffen sind. Die Bilder sind unbeschädigt, doch ist uns aufgefallen, das zwei von ihnen, nämlich das "Stilleben mit totem Hammel etc" und das Herrnbildnis ("Dr. Szeps") gefirnist worden sind. Wir sind hierüber umsomehr befremdet, als nach unserer Kenntnis Kokoschka seine Bilder im allgemeinen nicht gefirnist hat. Wir bitten Sie daher, uns mitzuteilen, wer dies veranlast hat.

Mit vorzüglicher Hochachtung

Dear Miss Marston:

Thank you for the return lists of the Kokoschka graphic art. When Miss Rex returns from her vacation next week I will ask her to check it with the prints in the exhibition and in our storeroom.

We may have some questions to ask you and will write again. I hope we will be able to identify all of the graphic work so that it will not be necessary for you to make a trip to New York.

The drawing "Head of a Girl" was attributed to the M. H. De Young Memorial Museum because of a sticker on the back and because the photograph is credited to that museum. We are changing the label to read "Private Collection" but will return the drawing to the St. Etienne Gallery unless we are notified to the contrary.

We have written to the director of the Austrian State Picture Gallery asking for his recommendations as to the best way of returning the Viennese loans.

I note that Mrs. Mack wishes to purchase the Montana landscape lent by the Kunsthaus, Zurich. Shall we return this with the rest of the Swiss loans unless we hear from you that it has been purchased? We should hear from you about returning this painting as well as the paintings belonging to Mrs. Mack and Mrs. Katzenellenbogan before the close of the exhibition (October 4) so that our packing and shipping lists may be prepared.

September 26, 1949

Dear Friend:

In your letter of September 21st to Miss Alice Bacon, you requested us to postpone the disposition of your exhibition, including the works belonging to you, until you were able to talk the matter over with me. We have already issued the instructions for packing and returning all the works in the exhibition and have informed all of the private lenders and museums that their works were being sent to them immediately upon the close of the exhibition on October 4th. You will understand that we must fulfill our promise to them.

As to the works which belong to you, we would like to have instructions as to where to send them as quickly as possible because we shall have to pay storage to hold them for shipping instructions at W. S. Budworth Company, which is doing the packing.

Since a number of the works came to us as loans by the Kunsthaus in Zurich, Paul Cassirer (both in London and in Amsterdam), and Mr. Feilchenfeldt in Zurich, we are not sure whether these paintings belong to you or not. There is also the "Self-Portrait of a Degenerate Artist", which was lent by you with instructions to return it to Professor Korner in London. I attach hereto a list of these works lent by galleries, but which may belong to you. Will you please mark beside the title of each painting what disposition is to be made of it. All other works in the exhibition are from private lenders or museums.

Kindly return this slip to me with your instructions in the enclosed special delivery envelope, because any change in our shipping instructions to Budworth must be made this week.

I hope you are having an agreeable sojourn in Minneapolis, and I shall be very eager to see the portraits you are painting of Mr. and Mrs. Cowles.

With cordial greetings, I am

Faithfully yours,

June 10, 1949

Dear Mr. Pearlman:

Mr. Monroe Wheeler has asked me to send you our Registrar's estimate of the probable cost of bringing the three Kokoschka pictures over from Zürich.

You will notice that there are two alternative rates: one which applies if it is definitely known that the pictures are not for sale, but for exhibition only, in which case an affidavit to that effect must be given. The other rate applies if one or more of the pictures may be sold here. If the pictures may remain in this country, it would be cheaper to bring them over by air freight, at an estimated cost of $242.50 plus insurance, packing and clearance charges.

I have showed Mr. Wheeler Oskar Kokoschka's comments on Cardinal Archbishop Elia Della Costa, the Archbishop of Florence, who is the subject of one of the paintings. We are very glad to have this information and are grateful to you for sending it on to us.

Sincerely yours,

secretary to Mr. Monroe Wheeler

22 nd October,1949

Dear Mr.Neurath,

I received a letter from the packers,Messrs.C.R.Fenton, of Davies Street,London,informing me that the picture by Kokoschka,Dolce Bridge, would be shipped to me in the near future,coming from the Museum of Modern Art,of New York. They ask me to let them have the Import Licence, they ask for my instructions regarding insurance and overseas charges etc.

As you will remember,the picture had been handed over by me to your representative,Mr.Barrington,of Adprint,in August 1948.The picture was to be added to the shipment of Kokoschka's pictures which were to go from London to the USA because Mr.Plaut,of Boston,had repeatedly asked for the picture and you also believed it to be of importance that the picture should be added to the exhibition because it had already been listed in your catalogue. As I wanted to leave London early in August,I could not fill in all the necessary forms myself and I left the entire matter in your hands.I wrote to you in this connection,on August 7 th,1948:

"I should like to confirm our telephone conversation :that you will kindly insure the Painting"Dolce Bridge"by Oskar Kokkoschka which you collected yesterday at my place at the amount of £ 600.-The picture has been chosen to go to America for the various Kokoschka One Man's shows- it has to go on a temporary export licence."

The temporary export license,CD3 form etc. must therefore be somewhere among your papers,or maybe among the Ad-print papers.Mrs.Kokoschka with whom I talked the matter over has not got the papers,nor have I got them.I must however have them in order to arrange for the reimportation.The insurance,charges for clearance and delivery etc.cannot,of cause,be paid by myself as it was the understanding of the whole matter that all expenses should be covered by the exhibitors. I myself had no interest at all to have the picture exhibited-which does not even belong to me-but I did it entirely on behalf of the exhibitors who thought it of particular interest.

I would be very grateful if you could give me some details in regard to the matter,inform me where I shall get the necessary papers and forms which you filled in for the export and where the money for the expenses shall be covered. We are rather astonished that the picture is coming in a separate case which will certainly make everything more difficult and more expensive instead of coming as part of the general shipment.

Yours sincerely

These arrived from Wilmington in the state St. Etienne report - the portfolio closed on the sheet causing bent edges.

Wilmington did not report.

Most of this material came in the big uncataloged batch. I laid all sheets flat when I checked them out, but the previous bends must have caused them to slip in the portfolio again.

Sehr geehrte Herren!

Beiliegend übersenden wir Ihnen die Rückbestätigung für die drei entlehtnen Werke von Oskar KOKOSCHKA,die gestern in unserer Galerie eingetroffen sind.Die Bilder sind unbeschädigt,doch ist uns aufgefallen,daß zwei von ihnen,nämlich das "Stilleben mit totem Hammel etc" und das Herrnbildnis ("Dr.Szeps") gefirnißt worden sind. Wir sind hierüber umsomehr befremdet,als nach unserer Kenntnis Kokoschka seine Bilder im allgemeinen nicht gefirnißt hat.Wir bitten Sie daher,uns mitzuteilen,wer dies veranlaßt hat.

October 13, 1949

Dear Mr. Phillips:

Yesterday Julius Lowy, Inc. collected your new Kokoschka landscape from us, before our receipt of your letter of October 11th.

It has occurred to me that you may never have seen the wide carved frame which belongs with the picture. The Boston Institute removed all the heavy or fragile frames before the tour, replacing them with flat strips. The original frames were shipped separately to us for eventual return to the lenders, since we are dispersing the exhibition.

The Cassirer frame for Lyons looked very well on the picture when we used it in our showing, and I wanted to make sure that you knew you had acquired it with the painting.

I hope that Lowy will have no difficulty in repairing the damage which is, incidentally, in the upper left rather than the upper right as I told you. I was happy to learn that the Phillips Gallery had acquired the painting, for it seemed to me one of the most beautiful in the exhibition.

Dear Mr. Phillips:

Our showing of the Kokoschka retrospective ended yesterday, and we are now completing arrangements for the return of the pictures to the lenders.

I regret to have to report that Lyon suffered some damage from careless stacking during the course of the tour. The painting reached us with a corner dent in the upper right hand section of the canvas, but there was no paint loss beyond a very slight surface abrasion.

We have reported the damage to the insurance company and would be very glad to arrange to have it repaired before it is returned to you. But if you should prefer to use your own restorer we will return the painting with the other two Phillips Gallery loans. The cost of the repairs could be reported to us later and we would then bill the insurance company for your reimbursement.

The loans will be collected by Budworth for packing at the beginning of next week. We should appreciate having your decision before then if possible.
