The Portland Museum of Art is pleased to present an exhibition of the early work of Dahlov Ipcar. Originally shown at The Museum of Modern Art in 1939, the exhibition still attests thirty years later to the genuine creative growth of the child who is encouraged expressively to rejoice in his or her world.

CREATIVE GROWTH

CHILDHOOD TO MATURITY

AN EXHIBITION OF THE WORK OF DAHLOV ZORACH IPCAR, SHOWING HER DEVELOPMENT IN ART FROM THE AGE OF THREE TO TWENTY-TWO YEARS.

This exhibition should be of great interest to educators and parents because it shows the creative growth from infancy to adulthood of an individual who is neither a genius nor a prodigy. She was a normal healthy child whose capacity for art flourished not because her parents are noted artists but because of their sensitivity and recognition of Dahlov as a creative individual. The exhibition shows the uninhibited progress a child can make with proper stimulation and encouragement from intelligent teachers and parents. At no stage does she seem to have been over-influenced by the teaching of school or parent.

DAHLOV ZORACH IPCAR IS THE DAUGHTER OF WILLIAM ZORACH, THE SCULPTOR. THIS IS A PORTRAIT BUST OF MRS. IPCAR AT THE AGE OF 12 YEARS.
