Dear Mr Neumann:

I and my wife are still impressed by the visit to your gallery yesterday. You not only showed us a hearty welcome but your deep interest in my art will long remain in my memory. In you we found a great friend of new art a knight with out fear and reproach, to whom the interest of new beauty is so near and assential. We were touched by your generous promise to send us seventy five dollars with a purpose of supporting our artistical work this coming summer. Expressing thanks for your friendly attention I wish in conclusion to tell you a few very sincere words about your critizim which you said about my work shown to you. Your critizim will have great effect on my future work. I felt your great understanding of art

Sincerely yours,

André Breton
