SANDBURG TO RECITE HIS POETRY, SING, PLAY GUITAR AT MUSEUM

Carl Sandburg will recite his poetry and sing on Monday evening, November 27, at 9.p.m. in the first of Five Poetry Evenings to be held at the Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street.

Half of Mr. Sandburg's program will be devoted to reading from his "Complete Poems" published by Harcourt-Brace last week. He will also read from "Remembrance Rock" and will make brief references to what Lincoln would do if he were alive now. Mr. Sandburg will close the program with several songs accompanied by his guitar.

Tickets are available at the Museum. Series tickets for the five evenings are $7.50 to Museum members, $12 to non-members. Tickets for Mr. Sandburg's recital alone are $2.00.
