Art classes for adults and children at the People's Art Center of the Museum of Modern Art will begin next month. Registration is now open and will continue until January 20. Catalogs and registration blanks may be obtained by calling the Museum's Department of Education, Circle 5-8900.

Classes are offered 6 days a week for children between the ages of 3 and 18; adult classes in painting, life drawing, ceramics, woodworking, jewelry, orientation and the fundamentals of design are offered in the evening and in some instances, during the day.

In a special class, introduced by the Museum last year, parents and children work together in art.
