Instead of LES VOLONTAIRES DE LA MORT, previously scheduled to be shown at the Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, during the week of March 3-10, the Museum will show the British film SHOOTING STARS, directed by Anthony Asquith for British Instructional Pictures in 1923, and featuring Annette Benson and Donald Calthrop. SHOOTING STARS is a drama centering around a British film studio of the silent days. It was acquired through the courtesy of the British Film Institute.
