ROLE OF PARENTS IN CHILDREN'S ART EDUCATION

TO BE DISCUSSED AT MUSEUM

Understanding Your Child's Art will be the subject of an illustrated talk by Marion F.T. Johnson on Friday, March 20, at 10:30 a.m. at the People's Art Center, 21 West 53 Street. Mrs. Johnson is head of the Educational Program at the Delaware Art Center in Wilmington. In her talk for parents she will cover such aspects as why the child needs art experiences, the parents' attitude toward the children's creative growth, and the kind of materials needed. The emphasis will be on the younger child with some reference to older age levels.

This is one of four public meetings being held during the 11th Annual Conference of the Committee on Art Education, a national organization of art educators sponsored by the Museum of Modern Art. More than 500 members of the Committee are expected to attend the 4-day conference which opens at the Museum on March 19.

Tickets at $1.25 may be obtained for this discussion at the Museum, 11 West 53 Street.
