Starting immediately, my assistant Mrs. Elizabeth Shaw, formerly Mrs. Boldt, will be Acting Director of the Museum's Publicity Department until February 1954. On special assignment from the Museum Director, I will be occupied during this period in the compilation of a book on the origins, developments, policies and procedures of all the Museum's departments. Such a volume has been in constant demand for many years, and in view of the Museum's 25th anniversary in 1954, its publication at that time is considered a project deserving high priority.

Therefore, until next February, will you please address any inquiries about the Museum to Mrs. Shaw?

Sincerely,

Betty Chamberlain
