College and university students can obtain a special rate of $.75 each for tickets for an illustrated lecture, ANCIENT ARTS OF THE ANDES, to be given at the Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, on Wednesday evening, February 10, at 8:40 p.m., by Rene d'Harnoncourt, Director of the Museum of Modern Art, and an expert on primitive art and its relation to the art of our time.

The lecture is being presented in connection with the exhibition ANCIENT ARTS OF THE ANDES, which, under the direction of Mr. d'Harnoncourt, will open at the Museum of Modern Art on January 27. After his talk, Mr. d'Harnoncourt will meet the audience in the galleries where the exhibition of ancient gold and silver jewelry, elaborate tapestries, stone sculpture and beautifully modeled ceramics is installed. The evening is being sponsored by the Museum's Junior Council, a group of young friends of the Museum.

Tickets, available at the Museum, are $1.00 for members, $1.25 for the general public. Blocks of student tickets at $.75 each are available through your
