Free gallery lectures are given every Friday, Saturday and Sunday at 4:30 p.m. by A.L. Chanin, Staff Lecturer, at the Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 St., N.Y.

Entertaining and instructive for the novice as well as for the student of art, Mr. Chanin's talks range from analyses of a particular artist's style, such as The Art of Matisse and Leger's Contribution to Modern Art, to discussions of the various schools of modern art, such as Understanding Abstract Art, The What and Why of Cubism and Expressionism in Modern Painting. Lectures on specific works of art, such as Picasso's 'Three Musicians', and on more general subjects, such as How Color Functions in Modern Painting, are also given. Several afternoons each month are reserved for the audience's choice of topic. Besides his talks in the Museum's world famous collection, Mr. Chanin lectures on each of the Museum's major loan exhibitions of paintings and sculptures while they are on view.

The Museum is open from noon to 7 p.m. weekdays, 1 to 7 p.m. Sundays. Admission is 60¢ for adults, 20¢ for children.
