RASHO-MON, the prize-winning Japanese film by Akuro Kurosawa, will be shown at the Museum of Modern Art at 3 and 5:30 p. m. from September 27 through October 3 in the Museum Auditorium.

The film, which was widely acclaimed when it was first shown in this country in 1951, is directed by the same man and has the same stars as another recent Venice Film Festival winner, "Ugetsu," now being shown at the Plaza Theater.

RASHO-MON was presented to the Museum of Modern Art Film Library by Mr. James A. Mulvey, President of Samuel Goldwyn Productions, Inc. It was originally distributed in the U. S. A. by R K O - Radio Pictures.

Stills are available from the Museum of Modern Art Publicity Department
