SUMMER VACATION PAINTING COURSES OFFERED ON LONG ISLAND

BY THE PEOPLE'S ART CENTER

OF THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ART.

The Museum of Modern Art will offer its first vacation painting courses as part of its summer session during the month of July on eastern Long Island in the region of Montauk. The daily classes, under the instruction of Victor D'Amico, director of the People's Art Center, will include painting trips to various points of interest such as the Montauk cliffs overlooking the sea, the dunes around Amagansett, the fish-fertilizer factory at Promised Land, the docks and yacht basin at Sag Harbor. The day will be divided into two sessions, three hours on location under the instructor's direction and the rest for individual work out of doors or at the Community House at Springs, a short distance from Easthampton, which has been engaged as a studio. In addition to individual instruction, there will be a wall criticism and a visit to an artist's studio each week.

Students may join a group for the whole month or for one or more weeks. The fee for the entire month is $80.00; the fee per week is $25.00. Any medium may be used; oil paint, tempera, watercolor, etc.

Opportunities for bathing, boating and fishing are available in the vicinity. Applications must be received by March 15. For further information call or write: Elinor Weis, People's Art Center, 21 West 53 Street, New York City 19, JU 2 - 5255.
